

Acknowledgements of Appreciation

Puff, you were like a son to me and my children, a brother from another mother. You'll always have a special place in our hearts where there is no other. Nobody could make you do what you didn't want to do, even if they tried very few could challenge you.

I remember you and I watching the Eagles games together. Even as a child you knew more than I, and that will stick with me forever. You grew up so fast, so strong and tough, and if I could get one more hug even that wouldn't be enough.

We're all happy to have had the time with you. You were such a cool kid. I asked God to hug you, and I know he did. Thank you Puff for being so strong and relentless. Thank you for your energy and Independence. We will always Love you, and our memories will never be still. We love you and will miss you forever, and you already know we will.

Obituary

Javon J. Cutler, 19, passed away in Jersey Shore University Medical Center on October 13, 2020. He was born on February 24, 2001, in Freehold, NJ to Jonathan Cutler Sr. and Jinell Lewis-Cutler.

Javon graduated from Central Regional High School, Bayville, in 2019. He resided with his parents and enjoyed playing basketball, video games, listening to music, dancing, spending time with his brothers, vacationing and hanging out watching movies and football games with his family.

Javon (Puff) was the coolest of his siblings and the one that always seemed to know what to do. He was the person you went to for straight up honest advice and he didn't sugarcoat his words. Anyone that knew Puff was aware of his notorious temper and his incredible sense of independence. He always knew his next move. Puff was a dreamer with a big heart and a smile to match. He was very genuine and sincere and always wanted the best for his family.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his parents, Jonathan Cutler Sr. and Jinell Lewis-Cutler of Bayville, NJ; brothers, Jazmere M. Cutler and Jonathan T. Cutler, Jr. of Bayville, NJ; sister, Journey Joi Cutler of Bayville, NJ; grandparents, John and Hope Lewis of Howell, NJ, Salvador and Fannie Diaz, Sr. of Florida, Ann Lewis of Lakewood, NJ; Debra Cutler of Jackson, NJ, and Kevin and Trish Breaux of California; uncles, Salvador Diaz, Jr., John, Derrick and DeShaun Lewis of Howell, NJ, Marcus Lewis of Florida, and Kevin Breaux, Jr. of Keansburg, NJ; aunts, Towana Cutler of Keansburg, NJ, Yazmcnda Cutler of Highlands, NJ, Irene Diaz Roache of Barnegat, NJ, Candice Diaz, Nichole Thompson of Georgia; and a host of great aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives and friends.
