Life Profile

Ms. Angela Michelle Yvette Wofford was born on June 19, 1973, to Ms. Priscilla Wofford. She graduated from Spartanburg High School and was a member of the Unlimited Showstoppers Social Club. Angela's favorite colors were red, black, and white and she was affectionately known by her family and friends as "Skittles." She was always the life of the party and enjoyed making people smile. She was the one who brought everyone together.

She leaves to cherish fond and loving memories to, two sons, Paul Williams of Tampa, FL and Malcolm Williams of Florence, SC; three daughters, Takia Wofford (Rodney Atkins) of Greenville, SC, Tabathe Wofford of Spartanburg, SC, and Porche Wofford of the home; her mother, Priscilla Wofford of Spartanburg, SC; one aunt, Patricia (Mitchell) Landrum; two uncles, Harold (Lilly) Mitchell, and MacFarland Mitchell of Palm Beach, FL; sixteen grandchildren; a host of special friends, cousins, and other family members and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Christopher Wofford and brother, Terrance Lamont Wofford.

On Friday, December 10, 2021, she transitioned peacefully at the Spartanburg Medical Center. Angela's ever-loving presence will live on in the memories and hearts of her family and friends.
