Life Reflections

Jannie Montgomery, widow of Alphonso Montgomery, Sr., daughter of the late Frank Briggs, Sr. and Lizzie Belcer Briggs was born June 12, 1934 in Clarendon County. She passed peacefully into eternal rest on January 29, 2026 surrounded by loved ones. A steady light in the lives of everyone who knew her, Jannie carried a quiet strength, a generous heart, and a smile that could soften even the hardest days.

Jannied grew up rooted in faith, family, and the simple joys. She believed in showing up for people. Whether through a warm meal, kind words, or a listening ear, she made others feel seen and safe. Her home was a gathering place filled with laughter, stories, and the comforting rhythm of togetherness.

Jannie was known for her grace, resilience, and deep devotion to those she loved. She found beauty in everyday moments: morning sunlight through the window, gospel music in the background, and the company of family and friends around the table. Her life was stitched together with care, service, and compassion.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and moments to be cherished by her children: Alphonso (Johneise) Montgomery, Frank (Leneice) Montgomery, Viola (John) Cain, Leroy Montgomery, Mary L. Hargrove; five grandsons she raised: Frank Montgomery, Tyrone Montgomery, Marcus Montgomery, Anthony aka Tony Montgomery, Gregory Montgomery; out of nine siblings she has one surviving sister Mary B. Miller; fifteen grandsons and one granddaughter, twenty-eight great grandchildren; a brother-in-law, Alonza Wilson; two sisters-in-law, Catherine and Lucretia; and many relatives, friends and loved ones who will continue to carry her spirit forward.

She was preceded in death by Leroy Sr., David, Lucille, Rachel, Frank Jr., Susie Mae, Hester, and Willie J.

Though she has stepped beyond our sight, her presence remains in every lesson taught, every kindness she shared, and every heart she touched. Her love endures, steady as a sunrise. Truly she was a phenomenal woman.
