HER LIFE'S Journey

MS. EMMA LOU WRIGHT DANIEL was born December 30, 1953, in Terrell County, Georgia. She was the fifth child born to Eddie C. and Emma Lou Wright.

In her pursuit to learn about God, Emma allowed Jehovah's Witnesses to visit her home on a regular basis for them to study the Bible with her. After personally deciding to devote her life to serving the only true God, Emma symbolized her dedication by getting baptized in 1984. That was only the beginning, for Emma knew that she must continue share with others the Bible truths she had learned. Until her death, Emma made speaking about Jehovah and Jesus her primary concern.

Described as having a super strong personality, Emma never took no for an answer. She was a go-getter, and she would do whatever she could to help her children, her family, and her friends. She was most willing to help in the kitchen, and her circle is definitely going to miss her cooking. While cooking was what she loved to do for others, for herself it was shopping and getting that new dress for Sunday. Regardless of the color of her dress, she was going to sport her red lipstick, and she was never caught without it, even in her sleep.

In the early afternoon of Tuesday, December 10, Emma peacefully went to sleep. She was preceded in death by her parents; all of her siblings, sister, Mary Tolbert, and brothers, Milton Wright, Freddie Wright, David Wright, Eddie J. Wright, and Frank Moore; and a grandson, Gregory Malik Wright.

Precious cherished memories of Emma will remain with those who loved her: her children, Gregory Wright, Jeril Tolbert, Lasonda Tolbert, and Lanedra Tolbert; seven grandchildren, Xavius Tolbert, Shabarrian Brown, JaMya Wright, Shamyia Tolbert, Kaylyn Tolbert, Emily Tolbert, and Jordan King; six great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

We are going to miss her outspoken personality. If you wanted the truth, she was gonna tell you whether you wanted to hear it or not.
