

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary

Herbert Leon Dew was born October 23, 1950, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Mack Dew and Juanita Coleman. He was one of seven boys out of ten children. He had three sisters.

Herbert was known as “Big Lee” by his family and friends. He attended Courter Tech High School. After high school he joined the Marines Corp in the late 1960’s. Herbert was a machinist for General Electric until his retirement.

Throughout his journey he never had children, but children seemed to love him. Herbert loved college football and cooking.

Herbert is preceded in death by his father, mother and four brothers.

He is survived by two brothers, Reggie Dew and Anthony Acklin; three sisters, Marilyn Dew, Valerie Harris, and Mary Staples; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends who he loved.
