

A C E L E B R A T I O N O F L I F E

To my Aunnie, I love you so much. I wouldn't be the woman I am today if it wasn't for you literally my best friend. We shared everything together, even clothes (lol). You were more like my mom than my aunt, and I will forever cherish all of our memories the good and the bad ones (haha). Thank you for loving me unconditionally. I wish I could repay you. I wish it wasn't too late. I wish I could have said goodbye, but I didn't. I promise to talk to you daily, and I know you'll send signs when you need to reach me. Aunnie, I love you. Get this much-needed rest until we meet again.

Your Niece Janeyt

A POEM FOR AUNNIE

My aunt and I had a special relationship.
 She was kind of like a best friend to me.
 I know she will always be in my heart.
 I believe she is looking down on me,
 my family, and my friends.
 I'm glad she can rest now.

Your Great niece Amara

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family of Chantayne Vick extends heartfelt thanks for your many acts of kindness, prayers, and support during this time of sorrow. To her neighbors and friends, your telephone calls, visits, and expressions of love have brought us comfort and strength.

A special thank you to The Fayson Firm of Professional Morticians for their professional care and compassionate service. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered and deeply appreciated.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES ENTRUSTED TO:
 Fayson Firm of Professional Morticians, P.A.
 18 Irongate Drive Suite 10
 Waldorf, MD 20602
 (202) 850-0550

Programs By Twanitta

CHANTAYNE RENEE VICK
 SUNRISE: MAY 22, 1967 | SUNSET: AUGUST 3, 2025

Wednesday, August 13, 2025
 Viewing: 10AM | Mass: 11AM

St. Luke Catholic Church
 4925 East Capitol Street SE
 Washington, DC 20019

REMEMBERING CHANTAYNE

On May 22, 1967, a bright light entered this world Chantayne Renee Vick born to Barbara Jean Dixon and the late James Allen Dunmore. and raised in the Northeast Community of Washington, D.C. where she spent most of her years.

Chantayne received her formal education in the District of Columbia Public School System. From her earliest days, she carried a generous spirit, a tender heart, and a warmth that touched everyone she met.

Chantayne lived her life in service to others. She had a deep, unwavering love and respect for her mother, Barbara, who was her rock and guiding light. Whether lending a helping hand, offering a listening ear, or lovingly caring for someone's children, she gave freely of herself, expecting nothing in return. Though she never had children of her own, she poured her love into her grandchildren, family, and the many lives she nurtured along the way.

Two of her greatest joys were her beloved niece, Janeyt Dixon, and her precious great-niece, Amara Koné they were truly her hearts. She adored them deeply, celebrated their every accomplishment, and cherished every moment spent together.

In her later years, Chantayne was blessed to have her devoted sister, Tee, by her side each day. Tee's love, allowed her big sister to live with the reassurance that she was never alone.

Music was the heartbeat of her soul. She embraced every genre, from heartfelt ballads to lively anthems, but her greatest joy was the rhythm and energy of D.C. Go-Go especially when shared with her beloved sister, Tee. In music, she found joy, release, and connection. Whether in the middle of a lively crowd or swaying to a favorite tune at home, Chantayne's love for music was contagious, filling the air with laughter, rhythm, and togetherness.

Known as the life of the party, she had a way of lighting up every room she entered. Her laughter was infectious, her smile unforgettable, and her presence a gift to all who knew her. She carried a deep and enduring love for her father, a bond that time could never diminish.

Though she is no longer with us in body, Chantayne's spirit, kindness, and joy will forever dance in the hearts of those who loved her.

She leaves her legacy to celebrate her memory: her loving mother, Barbara Jean Dixon; father, the late James Allen Dunmore; husband, the late Milton Vick; sister, Tee Dixon; niece, Janeyt Dixon; great-niece, Amara Koné; granddaughters, Barbara Peoples and Tiffany Ferguson; great-grandchildren, Amazing and Zaki Peoples, Journey, Noel and Kayden Ferguson and her longtime companion, Glen Thompson; and her favorite cousins, Lynette Currey, Stephanie Bost, and Uneeda Nicholas. She is also cherished by a host of family and friends. Chantayne will be missed dearly.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." – 2 Timothy 4:7

May we remember her not with sorrow alone, but with gratitude for the love, laughter, and light she shared so freely. Her song plays on in our hearts, and her joy will forever echo in our memories.

ORDER OF MASS

Prelude

Processional

Opening Song – Marvin Ford

Opening Prayer – Fr. Cornelius Ejiogu

Blessing with Holy Water

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading – Job 19:1, 23–27

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 23

Second Reading – Romans 8:31–35, 37–39

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel – John 6:51–58

Homily – Fr. Cornelius Ejiogu

Prayers of the Faithful – Response: "Lord, Hear Our Prayer"

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Presentation of the Gifts & Song – Marvin Ford

Prayer over the Offerings – Fr. Cornelius Ejiogu

Eucharistic Prayer & Communion Rite

Communion

Song – Marvin Ford

Eulogy

Concluding Rites

Final Commendation – Marvin Ford

Song of Farewell – Marvin Ford

Dismissal

Expressions of Thanks – Family

Repast

2:30 PM – 900 G Street N. E.
Community Room

