

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrows starts without me, and I'm not here to see, If the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrows starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me I'm right there in your heart.

Thank You

The Marshall Family would like to thank everyone for the cards, flowers and kind expressions of sympathy shown following the passing of there love one. Your support at this difficult time was very much appreciated and of great comfort to all of the family.

Viola Doll Marshall

Viola Doll Marshall, born on January 11, 1948, in Cotopa, Alabama, peacefully departed this life, leaving behind a legacy of love, strength, and devotion to her family.

Viola was born to the late Charlie Marshall and Mrs. Maggie Marshall. She was preceded in death by her parents; her sisters, Annie Taylor, Mary Marshall, Eloise Mitchell, and Gloria Marshall; and her brothers, Ed Marshall, Charlie Marshall, and Joe Marshall.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving children, Derwin Marshall, Maurice Marshall, and James Devon Marshall. Viola's legacy continues through her beloved grandchildren, Shelquon Marshall, Devahia Marshall, Mariah Marshall, Daryl Jr., Cheyenne, Chris, Michael Marshall, and Zori Marshall, all of whom brought her immense joy and pride.

She is also survived by her dear brother, Willie Marshall, as well as her cherished nephew and Neice, Alan Marshall and Felicia Johnson, along with a host of extended family members and friends who will deeply miss her presence.

Viola will be remembered for her strength, her love for family, and the kindness she showed to everyone she met. Her life was a testament to resilience and unwavering devotion, and her memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.
