

Obituary

On Monday, September 10, 2018, God called home with a whisper one of his saints to eternal rest and peace.

Betty Ann Bailey (Martin) was born on November 10, 1934 to the proud parents of Cornellius V. Martin and Blanche Willa Mae Denkins.

Betty was the youngest of three daughters, of her sisters Mae Elizabeth Brown and Rose Beatrice Dyer.

In August of 1954, Betty met Mr. Charles Bailey. At this time Betty already had two children, a pretty little girl named Leona, and a handsome little boy named Michael. On September 2, 1954, Betty and Charles were united in the bonds of matrimony. They had seven more children, six daughters; Anita, Doris, Barbara, Charlene, Katherine and Patricia, and one son; Charles Jr. Mr Charles Bailey Sr. passed away on June 15th, 1980. Betty also lost her baby daughter, Patricia on May 17, 2012 and daughter Leona Bell Milton, in June 2018 and three grandchildren, Jacqueline Bell, Donald Bailey Jr. and Christopher Bailey.

Betty worked for Good Samaritan Hospital, retiring on November 8, 1994.

Betty leaves to cherish her loving memory; son: Michael E. Martin Sr. (Darnise), Anita Gree (Camramon) Doris Bailey, Barbara Bailey, Charles Bailey Jr., Charlene Bailey, Katherine Bailey, 23 grandchildren, many great grandchildren, one niece; Willa Mae Reed, cousins, and a host of friends.

'When Tomorrow Starts Without Me'

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears of me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today,
while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand. And said my place was ready,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love
If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while
I'd say good-bye and kiss you and maybe see you smile
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.
