Gone Golfing

If the round should start without me because I have passed away Cherish the swings that we once made and please continue to play

For I'll be watching from a gallery with a magnificent view With friends and family from the past all cheering with pride for you

May each tricky putt find the hole your drives fly far and straight And when you've taken your final shot let's meet at the Pearly Gates

I'll have tee time booked in Heaven on the grandest course of all And we'll go golfing once again chasing that little white ball
