LENER MAE GRIFFIN

Lener Mae Griffin, 82, of Union Mississippi, passed away on June 16, 2025, at 4:00 a.m. at St. Dominic's Hospital, Jackson, Mississippi.

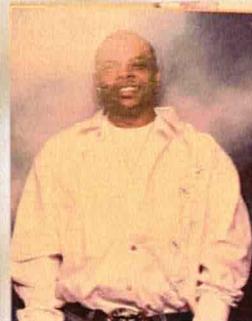

Lener was born in Newton County to Herman and Willie Mae (Washington) Thompson on February 18, 1943. She went to school at Boler High School in Decatur, MS and graduated from a high school in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She began working as a certified nursing aid in Milwaukee. She eventually returned to Mississippi and was employed at East MS State Hospital and retired while working at Choctaw Residential Center in Choctaw, MS.

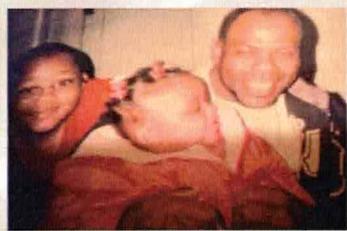

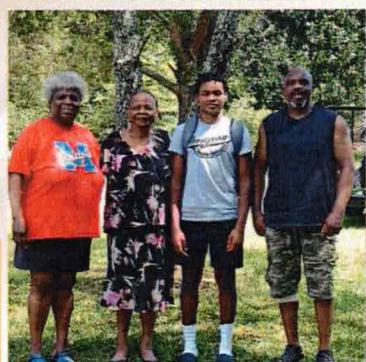

She joined Little Mountain M. B. Church as a child, and she was involved until her health diminished. She served as a choir member, secretary and trustee.

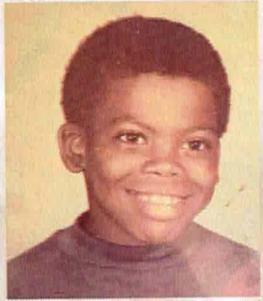

She loved organizing programs for the youth at the church.

Lener was preceded in death by her parents Herman and Willie Mae (Washington) Thompson; two sons, Demetrius and Michael, three brothers; Edger Lewis, Clarence and Herman Thompson, Jr, and three sisters; Anne Mae Madison, Eliza Jamison, and Sherron Thompson.

Lener is survived by her two sons: Eddie G. (Vanessa) Griffin of Drummonds, TN, Anthony D. Griffin of Milwaukee, WI; daughter, Antonia Griffin; three sisters: Myrtle Brown (Charles), Rosie Jones and Era Johnson of Union, MS; six grandchildren: Tasha Fountain, Gregory Jr. Griffin, Misty A. Griffin of Bossier City, LA; Sanjay (Laketia) Davis of Plantersville, MS; Joshua Griffin of Drummonds, TN, and Danielle Griffin of Milwaukee, WI; seven great grandchildren: Taleah, Brayden, Jazyya, Xavier, Ja'mal, Naomi, and Michael.

Special Tribute

I STAND IN THE LIGHT

CAN YOU SEE ME

MY CLOSED EYES BRIGHT WITH PEACE

I STAND IN THE LIGHT

CAN YOU FEEL IT

MY WORRIED MIND CALM WITH UNDERSTANDING

MY SMILE FILLED WITH THE WARMTH OF SUNS

I STAND IN THE LIGHT

CAN YOU TOUCH IT

IT'S ALL OVER ME

CLOTHING ME

READYING ME FOR MY JOURNEY

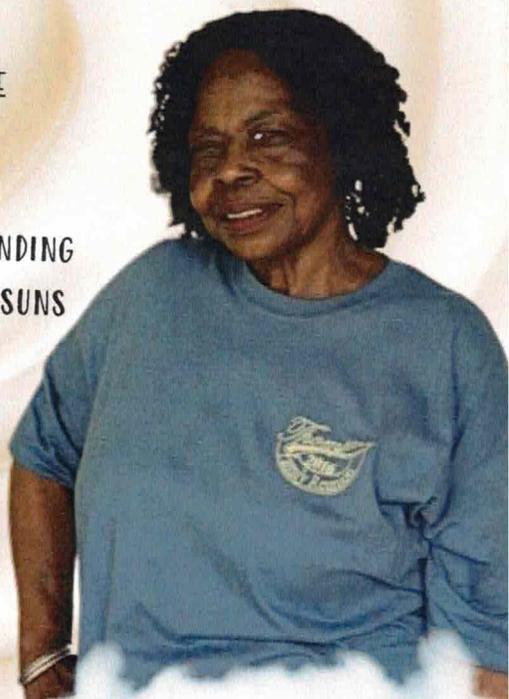

I STAND IN THE LIGHT

CAN YOU UNDERSTAND IT

WITH ALL THE LOVE

I'M GOING HOME
