Dear Sandra

This is a time where I am expressing my deepest love that I have for you, you are the one who made me who I am (a loving and caring person). You showed me so much strength that it is unexplainable. We promised each other we would never go to bed angry and you always won.

We also promised each other that we would be together until the end but prayed it would be me instead of you. I will always have you spiritually and in my heart. The love I have for you is forever. DON'T MAKE NO MISTAKES ABOUT IT!

Your forever love, Donny

Grandma, I Love You!

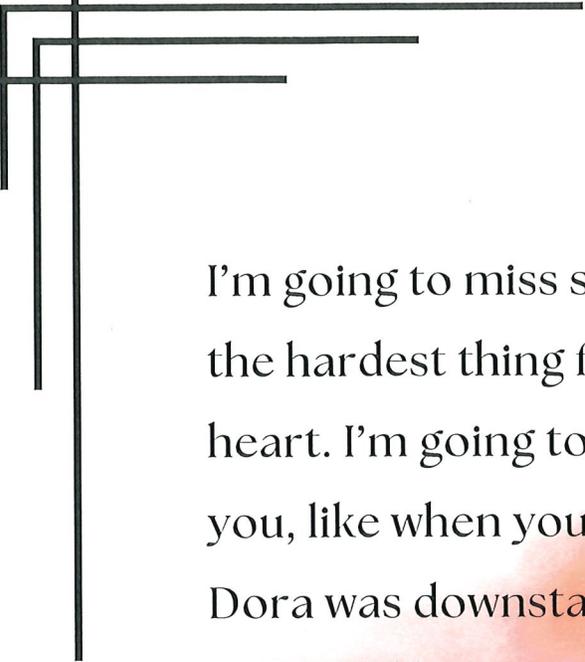

All I've ever known was my grandmother. I never knew this day would come but what I'll miss most is your stern, stubborn ways. I'll always thank you for being like that because I know it was all because you loved and cared about me. No mater what you always made sure I had what I needed... even what I wanted... no mater what you had to do to get it.

I want to thank you for being strong because you taught me to be strong. I watched you throughout this whole journey at every Dr's appointment, lying beside you, fixing your food, going to the market and even now I wish I could have done more. I promise to aways uphold your name (Sandra) as the strongest woman I have ever known.

Love, Summer

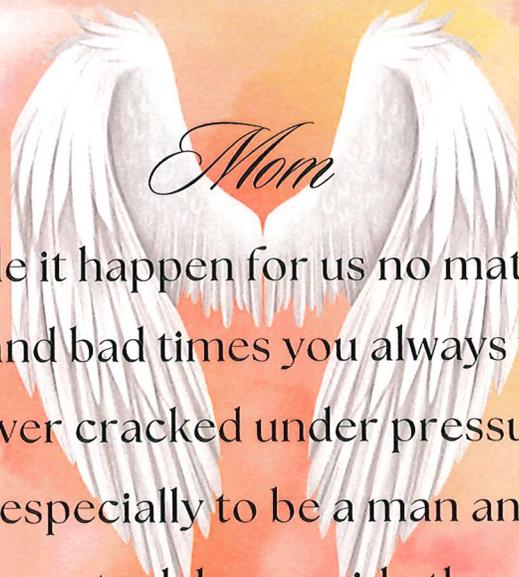

Grandma

I'm going to miss seeing you... seeing you decline was the hardest thing for me. You will always be in my heart. I'm going to miss all the memories I had with you, like when you used to wake me up and tell me Dora was downstairs waiting for me. Or the days that we would listen to music and dance in the living room. You are the best thing that happened to me.

I will love you forever, Khloe

Mom

You always made it happen for us no matter what! Through good and bad times you always were yourself and never cracked under pressure. You taught me a lot especially to be a man and take care of myself. You always stuck by my side through incarceration and beyond. You are the greatest mother I could have asked for. Thank you for everything!

In my heart forever, Love Andrew

Grammy

Grammy, to know you is to know all the life you brought, the people you've touched, and the love you've given. I am so glad I had the pleasure of having you as my grandmother and you loved me deeply. You always supported me throughout all my endeavors, no matter how far or how tired you were, you were always showing up for me.

You rode up and down and all around the DMV area going to all my dance competitions and basketball tournaments (you and mom fussing along the way lol), our sushi dates, endless runs to DD's or finding movies to watch all weekend when mom kidnapped you; you have always been right there for all of us- always right by my side.

My greatest honor was gifting you the rose I received for graduation as a token of my appreciation to someone who has loved and supported me throughout everything without hesitation... Even then, when you were sick! You sat in the sun for hours in the heat so you could watch me graduate from high school, deliberately missing your Cancer TX to be there for me. Even down to our last moments, you laid in the hospital bed massaging my back because I said it was hurting.

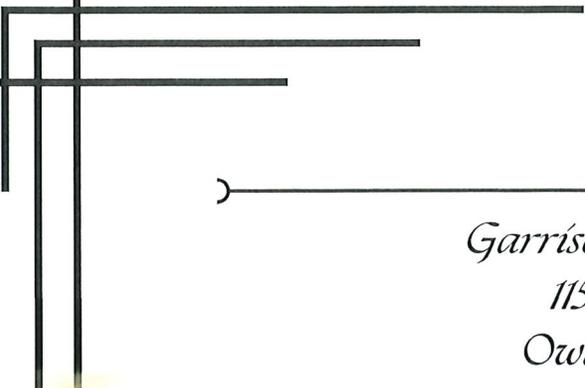

Time and Time again you taught me what it means to be loved unconditionally, and the importance of showing up for your family. I want you to know that I see you and all the love you have poured onto not just me but this entire family.

Sharing this time with you has been a blessing. Your laughter and light have left everlasting memories that will carry me throughout my life. A great lesson you taught me is to believe what people do, not what they say.

Contrary to your fiery attitude, your actions have always pointed towards love, felt amongst each of the lives you have touched. Your legacy is far beyond your last breath taken; the times we once enjoyed deeply, I will never lose, they have become a part of me. Each day I will continue to hold you near to my heart. I love you deeply my beloved InstaGrammy.

With deep love, Amari
