LIFE'S JOURNEY

Edward Jordan Sidney was born on November 7, 1997, in Houston, Texas, to Rickey Ardell Sidney and Cynthia Ann Sidney. He departed this life on September 9, 2026, leaving behind cherished memories that will forever remain in the hearts of those who loved him.

Edward attended Willowridge High School, where he participated in JROTC and the Marching Band. After high school, Edward enlisted in the United States Marine Corps, where he proudly served for two years. Following an injury, he was honorably discharged from the Marine Corps.

Edward continued his education and earned an Associate of Arts degree in Business Administration from American InterContinental University.

At a young age, Edward accepted the Lord as his Savior. He was a member of South Park Baptist Church. He later joined Paradise Missionary Baptist Church. He recently united with family church, One Houston Church, where he recently joined and attended worship services. His faith and connection with his church family were meaningful parts of his life.

Edward was preceded in death by his father, Rickey Ardell Sidney; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney; his grandmother, Patricia Stevenson; and his uncle, Gary Sidney.

Edward leaves to cherish his memory his beloved son, Zaidence Sidney, and his loving mother, Cynthia Ann Sidney. He also leaves behind a host of beloved aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members, friends, and many brothers and sisters in Christ.

Edward had a deep love for the arts and creative expression. He was passionate about writing poetry and had worked on a collection of poems that he hoped to one day publish. His book, entitled The Blueprint From Bruises, reflects his desire to share his experiences, creativity, and words with others.

Edward will be remembered for his creativity, his love for his family, his service to his country, and the many lives he touched along the way.

POEM FROM MOM

MY ONLY SON, EDWARD

Edward, my son, my precious child,
You brought me joy that made life worthwhile.
From the moment I held you in my arms,
You filled my heart with endless love and charm.

You were my only son, my greatest gift,
A piece of my heart that nothing can replace.
No mother should ever have to say goodbye
To her child, her love, her pride.

I will miss your voice, your smile, your ways,
And all the memories we made through the years.
Though my heart is broken and my tears may fall,
I will cherish every moment, big and small.

I wish I had one more day with you,
One more hug, one more conversation too.
But I find comfort knowing that you are at peace,
And I pray that your soul has found sweet release.

Edward, you will always be my baby,
No matter how many years have passed.
A mother's love never says goodbye—
It lives forever, and it always lasts.

Until we meet again, my son,
Rest peacefully in God's loving care.
You were my only son, my heart, my joy,
And I will carry your love everywhere.

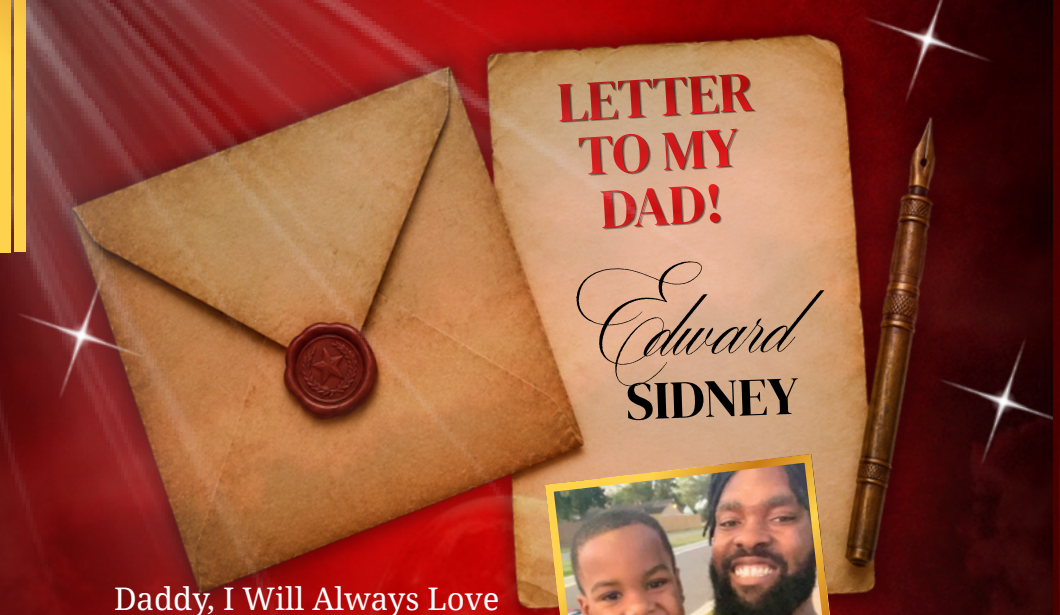

Forever your mother,
Cynthia

Daddy, I Will Always Love YouDaddy, I'm only five years old,But there's so much I want to say.I wish I could hold your handAnd tell you I love you every day.You were my daddy, my hero,My strong and loving friend.I didn't know our time togetherWould ever have to end.I'll miss your hugs and your smile,And the way you made me feel.I'll carry all our memoriesIn my heart forever still.When I look up at the stars at night,I'll think of you up above.I'll know you're watching over meAnd sending me your love Daddy, I may be little,But my love for you is big.You'll always be a part of me,No matter where I live.I love you, Daddy, forever and always.Until we meet again,Your little boy.
