

THE DAY GOD TOOK YOU HOME

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*

OBITUARY

As recorded in the Book of Ecclesiastes, “To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose: a time to be born and time to die,” all in the fulfillment of God’s divine will must be done.

Mr. Horace Lewis, Sr., was born on October 18, 1957, in Dawson, Georgia, to the late Willie “Bill” and Louise “Sudie” Lewis. He was born into a home filled with love.

Growing up in a house of discipline, Horace knew the value of a relationship with God. At an early age, he joined Rose Hill Missionary Baptist Church.

Horace attended Terrell County High School, Class of 1975. After high school, he held many jobs, Varsity, Almark Mills, and Yale Rubber Company, whereas he was known far and near for his entrepreneurial spirit and his pork skins and wine.

On August 30, 1980, Horace married Cynthia Griffin, his “Lady Cynt.”

Early on Sunday, October 20, 2024, the appointed hour was upon him. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sisters, Mary Lean Kelsey, Mary Lewis White, Shirley Lewis Wimberly, Eva Lewis Bates, and Juanita Lewis Anthony; and brothers, Rickey Lewis, Curtis Lewis, and Tommy Lewis.

Horace leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Cynthia Lewis; children, Jerkerris (Tausha) Griffin, Kenya (Timothy) Thornton, and Horace Lewis, Jr.; brothers, T. J. (Murleece) Lewis, Mujahid (Shirley) Salahud-Din, and Darrin Lewis; sisters, Apostle Minnie Lee Jones, Katie Bell, Bernice Lewis, Betty (Oscar) Grier, and Lucille Kendrick; uncle, Nathaniel Hodge; aunts, Ernestine Burkes, Lois Hodge, and Gloria Anderson; grandchildren, Jeremiah, Jerkerris Jr., Kaniyah, Kendon, and Timothy Jr.; very devoted nephew, Sheron (Veronica) Kendrick; friend to the end, Ronnie English; other close friends, Curtis Walton and Tim Woodson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and countless other friends.
