Missionaries, Blessings, Great Faith, and Hard Work

Lots of heartfelt good wishes
Keep coming our way,
With prayers that our efforts
Bring success, every day.

Filled with investigators, members,
And baptism, galore -
Lifetime, friendships, good memories,
And joy evermore.

Friends and families, back home
And the support that they hold,
Make us want to excel,
Learn and even be bold.

The knowledge that our Father
In Heaven is there,
Blessing those efforts
With great loving care
As He strengthens us, guides us,
And opens those doors,
Makes us lengthen our stride,
Pressing on more and more.

The Spirit that's Holy
Can abide with us when
We're righteous and obedient
And need guidance right then.

The Savior gave us a book
Just for these latter-days,
Filled with words that are guidelines
That teach of His ways.

So with all this support from
Godhead, loved ones, and book,
What we need to add
Is great faith and hard work.
