Celebrating The Life Of Matilda Marie Linklater February 24, 1955—September 5, 2025

September 5, 2025, a wonderful mother, grandmother, friend left the earth to travel to her eternal home. We will mourn her passing, we will grieve, cry, laugh, but most important is the legacy she left for us to pursue in her memory. She was considerate of others, compassionate, kind and loving to all.

Our mom raised us to the best of her ability. She worked hard from dusk until dawn to ensure our wellbeing. Her legacy she wants us to follow is to be kind to everyone, to teach our children values, respect, humility, and love.

We will miss our mother, our mentor, our pillar of strength. We will be alone, our mom would have wanted us to look after one another, help each other cope, not to lose focus on the meaning of life. She left to continue her teaching.

It was her time to return home. Mom's spirit will live on. We will honor love, treasure her memory as that of a fun loving mother.

Wilma (Greg), and their children; Darilyne, Gail, Allan, and his children, Mia, Landon, Jordan, Danika, Aiden, Cyrus (Katina), and their children
Janice (Leslie), and their children, Briley, Jolene, Justin, Jaclyne.
Jonathan, and his children, Thallas, Tayvan, Tameron ("Tam Tam")
Raymond (Diana), and their children, Bryson, Atlee J.C (Cheryl), and their children, Kaylee, Dennis ("Den Den"), Jace
Great Grandchildren, Deklan, Cameron, Shae-Lynn, Trayden, Zeniya.

Our mom will be united with her husband, John Clifford Linklater, her mom and dad, Wilfred and Marie Claire; son, Clifford; brothers, Raymond and Philip; She will want us to be good, kind, love one another. She will be with us in spirit. We will do our best to live up to the way she wanted us to be.

She had many relations that remained close to her; Emile, Juliane, Victoria, Mary Ann, Evelyn, John John, Sheila, Brutus, Victor, Roy.

A Tribute to Mother

I look at the northern lights dancing,
I will remember her.
I look at the sun peer through the brilliant horizon of dawn,
I will remember her.
I hear the northern birds cry out as they journey back,
I will remember her.
I hear the rustle of leaves blowing in the wind,
I will remember her.
The songs she loved to hear before bingo begins,
I will remember her.
The aroma of fresh baked bread cooling off,
I will remember her.
Her contagious laughter echoing as her friends settle in the chemo room, we will remember her.

Matilda, a resilient, hard worker, caring and loving,
your memory will live on forever.
Love your children
