LIFE REFLECTION

Laura Jackson Button, the great-great-granddaughter of the late Harry and Rachel Guiles of Florence, SC, the great-granddaughter of Elias and Adeline Brown, the granddaughter of the late Ben and Laura Jackson of Darlington, SC, and the daughter of the late Roman and Albertha Brown Smart Jackson, was born in Lane, SC on October 5, 1931. Laura gave up the life from within her earthen vessel early in the morning of Wednesday, November 26, 2025.

Laura attended Dixie Training School, also known as Berkeley Training High School.

She was a member of Graham A.M.E. Church which combined with St. James A.M.E. Church and became Moncks Corner A.M.E. Church where she was a member until her death. She was a member of the Drayton Singers. She was a member of the Berkeley Training High Class of '52 Club and the Perry Hill Community Club.

She was preceded in death by her husband James Button, and three children, Beverly Button Brown, Clarence Button and James Keith Button.

Laura was a compassionate and congenial person who would help anyone whenever she could. She loved being around people, sharing joy and laughter with them. She was a talented seamstress and enjoyed crocheting.

She leaves to cherish her memories: two sons, Joseph P. Jackson, Moncks Corner, SC and Nathan (Valencia)

(Jessica) Sabater, Zaquan Button and Terence Button; six great-grandchildren, Lamel Andrade, Ava Andrade, Kaison Button, Beverly R. Sabater, Zuri Sabater and Miles Sabater; one brother, Alexander Smart, Georgia; six sisters-in-law, Willie Mae Jordan and Patria Fair of Bronx, NY, Annie (Isaac) Rouse and Christenia Aiken of Goose Creek, SC, Redonia Johnson, Palm Coast, FL, and Ella M. Johnson, Ft. Lauderdale, FL; one God-daughter, Patricia (Matthew) Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF A SPECIAL GODMOTHER

The day you left and gained your wings
my heart just broke in two
I wished you could have stayed with me
But heaven needed you

You left me with the memories
And I love you dearly still
No matter how much time goes by
You know I always will

You were a very special person
With kindness in your heart
And the love we had together
Grows stronger now we're apart

I know I cannot bring you back
Although I wish it every day
But a piece of me went with you
The day you went away.
