Reflections

James Jocques Turner

AUGUST 8, 2007 - DECEMBER 1, 2025

James Jocques Turner, born August 8, 2007, in Louisville, Kentucky, entered this world with a bright spirit and a smile that could shift any atmosphere. He was the beloved son of his biological mother, the late Tori Smith, and his father Quinte Ingram, and was lovingly raised by his adoptive parents, Charlotte and Keresa Robinson-Turner, who cherished him deeply.

He received his education at Union City High School and Martin Westview, where he was known for his warm personality, humor, and the ability to make friendships wherever he went. A true lover of sports, he found joy in playing both basketball and football. He was an enthusiastic fan, rooting proudly for Kentucky when it came to college basketball and standing firmly behind Georgia as his favorite college football team.

He is preceded in death by his mother Tori Smith, his grandfather Robert Dela'Vega, and his grandmother Dianne Turner, all of whom undoubtedly welcomed him with open arms.

James was blessed with a large and loving family. He leaves to forever treasure his memory his grandparents: Darla Dela'Vega, Bobby Jo Smith, Cloresa James, and Dennis Lewis, Sr. He also leaves behind his siblings: Aaliyah Smith, Kayden Hyde, Chris White, Kourtnei Brown, Quest Morris, Jenesis Ingram, Quanesty Ingram, I'mani Jeffrey, A'quani Ingram, Travelle Littleton, Adaiysha Snow, Amiya Robinson, Jakwavius Allen, and Breesha Stanley, along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who loved him unconditionally.

James's life, though brief, was filled with love, laughter, and unforgettable moments. His presence touched many, and his memory will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew him.
