

June Lorraine McRae
June 13, 1921 - October 23, 2019

June Lorraine McRae, 98 of Albany, was promoted from this life to her Heavenly home.

June was born in San Bernardino, CA. She was preceded in death by her husband Richard "Dick" McRae, her son Doug McRae, and her grandson Jesse McRae.

She graduated from Salem High School in 1939 and Oregon Normal School, now Western Oregon University, in 1943. While playing his saxophone in the band, Dick McRae saw her on the dance floor. Later that evening during a break in the band set, they met. They married on August 17, 1945. She became a homemaker, mother of seven children and helped Dick out with the heating oil business. As a steward of the environment, she was a recycler and avid organic gardener long, long before it was mainstream as were many that grew up during the Great Depression. June was an avid walker and loved hiking with her friends. She was an active member of her church and modeled her faith every day to her family no matter life's circumstances, good times and bad. She was known to be active in daily prayer and persistent with her petitions especially for her loved ones. Her listening skills were well-honed and her gentle corrections were very influential in shaping values and character for those around her.

June is survived by her children; Jim (Esther) McRae, Mike (Stacey) McRae, Patti Hoffmire, Kathy (Dan) O'Dell, Peg McRae, and Jay (Mary) McRae. She is regarded as a Treasure to her daughters-in-law and sons-in-law as well as her numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

OF LIFE

June McRae
1921 ~ 2019

I Am Free

*My Loved ones,
Be joyous for me
My earthly garments shed
And in God's glory
I am free*

*My spirit soars
My heart is light
My earthly encasement
Is gone with the night
I am free ~ I am free*

*Pain and suffering
Have now ceased
Sorrow alleviated
In waves of peace
I am free*

*Free of troubles
Cares and woes
So let my spirit soar
Where ever it goes
I am free ~ I am free*

*My loved ones
Be joyous for me
For I am with God
In eternity
And ~ I am free*
