

A Note From Heaven

If I could write from heaven
this is what I'd say,
please don't miss me too much,
I'm with you throughout your day.
You may not see or hear me,
but if you're quiet and still,
you may just feel my presence;
because, in heaven, there is free will.

Don't worry for the day,
it will come and go as planned,
enjoy each moment you are given,
keep worry from your hand.
Keep sorrow to a minimum;
for if heaven you could see,
you'd know I'm safe and happy,

I did not cease to be.
Moments in time are brief,
until we'll be together again,
as eternity lasts forever,
our lives, they have no end.

Obituary

With heavy hearts and deep love, we announce the passing of Annette Jean Beavers, who departed this life on April 19, 2025, at the age of 70. Annette was a beloved daughter, devoted mother, proud grandmother, loyal sister, and cherished friend to many.

Born on November 19, 1954, to Onie Beavers and the late Nathaniel Beavers Sr., Annette was raised in a close-knit family that shaped her strong values, unwavering compassion, and enduring strength. She was preceded in death by her brothers Natharet Beavers Jr. and Carl Beavers, who now welcome her into eternal peace.

Annette leaves behind her loving brother William Beavers; two devoted sons, Aaron, Jermaine Beavers and Jarmain Beavers; and a legacy of love through her grandchildren: Jermiya, Jasmine Marven, Skylar Erica, and Joey Aaron Armani Denico, Mykia. Each of them held a special place in her heart and brought her immense joy and pride.

She will be fondly remembered by her special friend, Raymond Joues, and a circle of dear friends including Terri White, Mary Holley, Carl Walker, Joyce Raines, and Angie Raines. Annette also leaves behind a host of extended family and friends who will carry her memory forward with love.

Her nieces and nephews—Tiffany Beavers, Carla Beavers, Shaw Booker, Carl Beavers, William Beavers, and Josh Beavers—will remember her as a nurturing presence, always willing to offer encouragement, laughter, and guidance.

Annette's warmth, resilience, and generous spirit touched all who knew her. She will be dearly missed and forever remembered.
