

IN MY HEART

I thought of you with love today,
but that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday,
and days before that too.
I think of you in silence,
I often speak your name.
All I have are memories,
and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is my keepsake,
with which I'll never part.
God has you in His keeping,
I have you in my heart.

REMEMBERING GRUMP

With deep love and remembrance, we celebrate the life of Robert Hamilton, affectionately known as Grump, who departed this life on July 6, 2026, at the age of 73. Born in Washington, DC on June 18, 1953 to the late James and Jessie Hamilton, Robert was the second of six children—five brothers and one sister. He was preceded in death by his beloved parents and one brother, Tommy Camp.

Grump attended elementary and secondary schools in Washington, DC. He was an exceptionally intelligent and thoughtful man whose quiet strength and independent spirit defined the way he lived. He valued his solitude and was most comfortable charting his own course through life. While he was reserved by nature, those who knew him appreciated his keen mind and unwavering authenticity. He approached life with determination, curiosity, and an appreciation for doing things his own way. It should come as no surprise, unlike the majority of his siblings who were Redskins fans, Grump was a die-hard Dallas Cowboys fan. He loved attending sports events. He would often take his nephews as well as neighborhood kids to wrestling matches, football and basketball games.

His work ethic was equally remarkable. Grump dedicated more than 50 years of loyal service to Macy's, where his commitment, reliability, and professionalism earned the respect of colleagues. He remained a dedicated employee until the time of his passing. His extraordinary career reflected not only his dedication but also his consistency and integrity.

Even into his later years, Grump remained active and self-reliant. He took pride in maintaining his independence and continued to embrace life with energy and resilience. His ability to remain engaged and active well into his later years was a testament to his character and inner strength.

He leaves behind his siblings James, Phil (Loretta), Cynthia, and Johnny (Camina); nieces Quinetta (Adrian), Taraji, Tish, Tiffany, and Jasmine; nephews Sean, Carlos (Kenisha), and Michael; a host of cousins, great-nieces and nephews, other extended family, and friends who will remember him for his intelligence, steadfast independence, and the quiet yet meaningful impact he made on those around him. Though he preferred a simple life, his legacy is one of perseverance, dedication, and authenticity.

His family takes comfort in the memories they shared and in knowing that he lived life according to his own values. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.
