The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Joseph “Joe” James Keller was born on March 28, 1985, in Milbank, SD. He was the youngest of three children born to Timothy and Kay (Dahlgren) Keller. Joe was baptized at St. Lawrence Catholic Church in Milbank. He grew up in Milbank and graduated from Milbank High School in 2003. After high school Joe attended Northern State University in Aberdeen for one year before returning to Milbank where he worked at the radio station and later Hardee’s. Joe moved to Brookings to be closer to friends. While in Brookings, he worked at Daktronics and 3M. Most recently he was employed by Allied Universal as a security guard for Bel Brands USA. Joe was an avid gamer. He had quite the collection of various gaming systems and had an impressive gaming set up in his home. Joe always had deep thoughts and conversations to share with everyone. He left a lasting impression of love and kindness.

Joe will be forever loved and deeply missed by his father, Timothy “Tim” Keller, Sr. of Milbank, SD; sister, Holly (Chad) Folk of Milbank, SD; and three nephews: Andrew Folk, Evan Folk, and Isaac Folk, all of Milbank, SD. He is preceded in death by his mother, Kay Keller; brother, Timothy Keller, Jr.; and grandparents: Warren and Gladys Dahlgren; Mike and Iva Keller.
