Acknowledgements

The family of the late Thermon J. Perry, Sr. acknowledges, with sincere appreciation, your understanding, your prayers, and all many acts of kindness shown to them during this time. May God forever bless you and keep each one of you in His tender loving care.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me;
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or to play;
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void;
Then fill it with remembered joy;
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow;
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a love one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief;
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me Free.

Life Reflection

Thermon Jerome Perry, Sr. affectionately known as "Poochie", was born on March 28, 1955 in Neptune, New Jersey to the late James and Dorothy Perry. At the age of 61, Thermon departed this life on Sunday, July 24, 2016 at Jersey Shore Medical Center in Neptune, New Jersey.

Thermon was educated in the Neptune Public School System and graduated from Neptune High School in 1973. Upon graduating from High School, he started working at Marlboro Psychiatric Hospital.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to Jacquelyn Moore on July 25, 1981.

Thermon retired from Marlboro Psychiatric Hospital in 1993. In 1998, he graduated from Star Technical Institute as a Dialysis Tech. In 2000, he returned to work at Neptune High School as a Security Officer. He retired from Neptune High School in 2013.

Thermon was a Master Mason at Mt. Pisgah Lodge# 48, Asbury Park NJ. He also was a die-hard Eagles and Sixers Fan.

He loved to joke, laugh, travel and always had a nickname for everyone. Family was everything to him and he loved spending his time with his grandchildren.

Thermon loved to relax in his recliner watching his favorite shows The First 48, Martin and the Western Channel. He also enjoyed his weekly breakfast meetings with his Irv's Deli Crew.

In addition to his parents, Thermon was predeceased by six sisters, Theona, Odessa, June, Lillian, Wynette and Elaine; and two brothers, Louis and James Jr.

Thermon leaves to mourn and celebrate his life his loving wife of 34 years and one day shy of 35 years, Jacquelyn Perry; two sons, Thermon J. Perry, Jr. and Craig T. Perry; one daughter Stacy L. Perry; three grandchildren, Cameron, Tyler and James; two brothers-in-law, Anthony Moore and George Bowen; a sister-in-law, Marjorie Moore; and daughter-in-law, Laura Perry; two goddaughters, Dana Glisson and Lacey Biddle; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
