IN APPRECIATION

With heavy hearts, we acknowledge a loss that words can scarcely express. Anthony was more than a son, grandson, brother, nephew, cousin, and friend — he was a light in our lives. His presence brought warmth, laughter, strength, and a spirit that could never be overlooked. He carried himself with a heart that loved deeply and a soul that left a lasting impression on everyone blessed to know him.

During this time of profound sorrow, we are deeply grateful for the outpouring of love, prayers, calls, messages, visits, and every gesture of kindness extended to our family. Your support has been a source of comfort and strength as we navigate the unimaginable. It reminds us that Anthony's life touched far more hearts than we may ever fully know.

We ask that you continue to keep our family lifted in prayer as we celebrate Anthony's life and cherish the time we were blessed to share with him.

With sincere gratitude and love,
The Grant & Myles Families

OBITUARY

With heavy hearts and profound love, we celebrate the life of Anthony Tyrone Myles II—a beloved son, brother, cousin, nephew, and friend whose presence left an unforgettable mark on all who knew him. Anthony transitioned peacefully in his sleep on Thursday, February 19, 2026.

Born on August 26, 1997, to Alison Katrina Grant and Anthony Myles, Anthony was a bright light from the very beginning. From his earliest days, he radiated warmth and charisma, naturally drawing people to him with his genuine spirit and magnetic personality.

A proud graduate of Northland High School, Class of 2015, Anthony's love for sports was evident early on. Football and baseball held a special place in his heart, whether he was passionately cheering for the Ohio State Buckeyes or standing firm in his unwavering loyalty to the Dallas Cowboys.

Anthony had a vibrant personality that filled every room he entered. His smile could brighten even the darkest moments, and once he began talking, you were guaranteed a meaningful, entertaining, and unforgettable exchange. He could speak passionately about any subject, always eager to learn, share, and connect with others.

He expressed himself confidently through his love of style, swag, and shoes. Known for his impressive collection of sneakers and hats, Anthony also channeled his creativity as a brand ambassador for his close friend Josh's clothing line, FWSP.

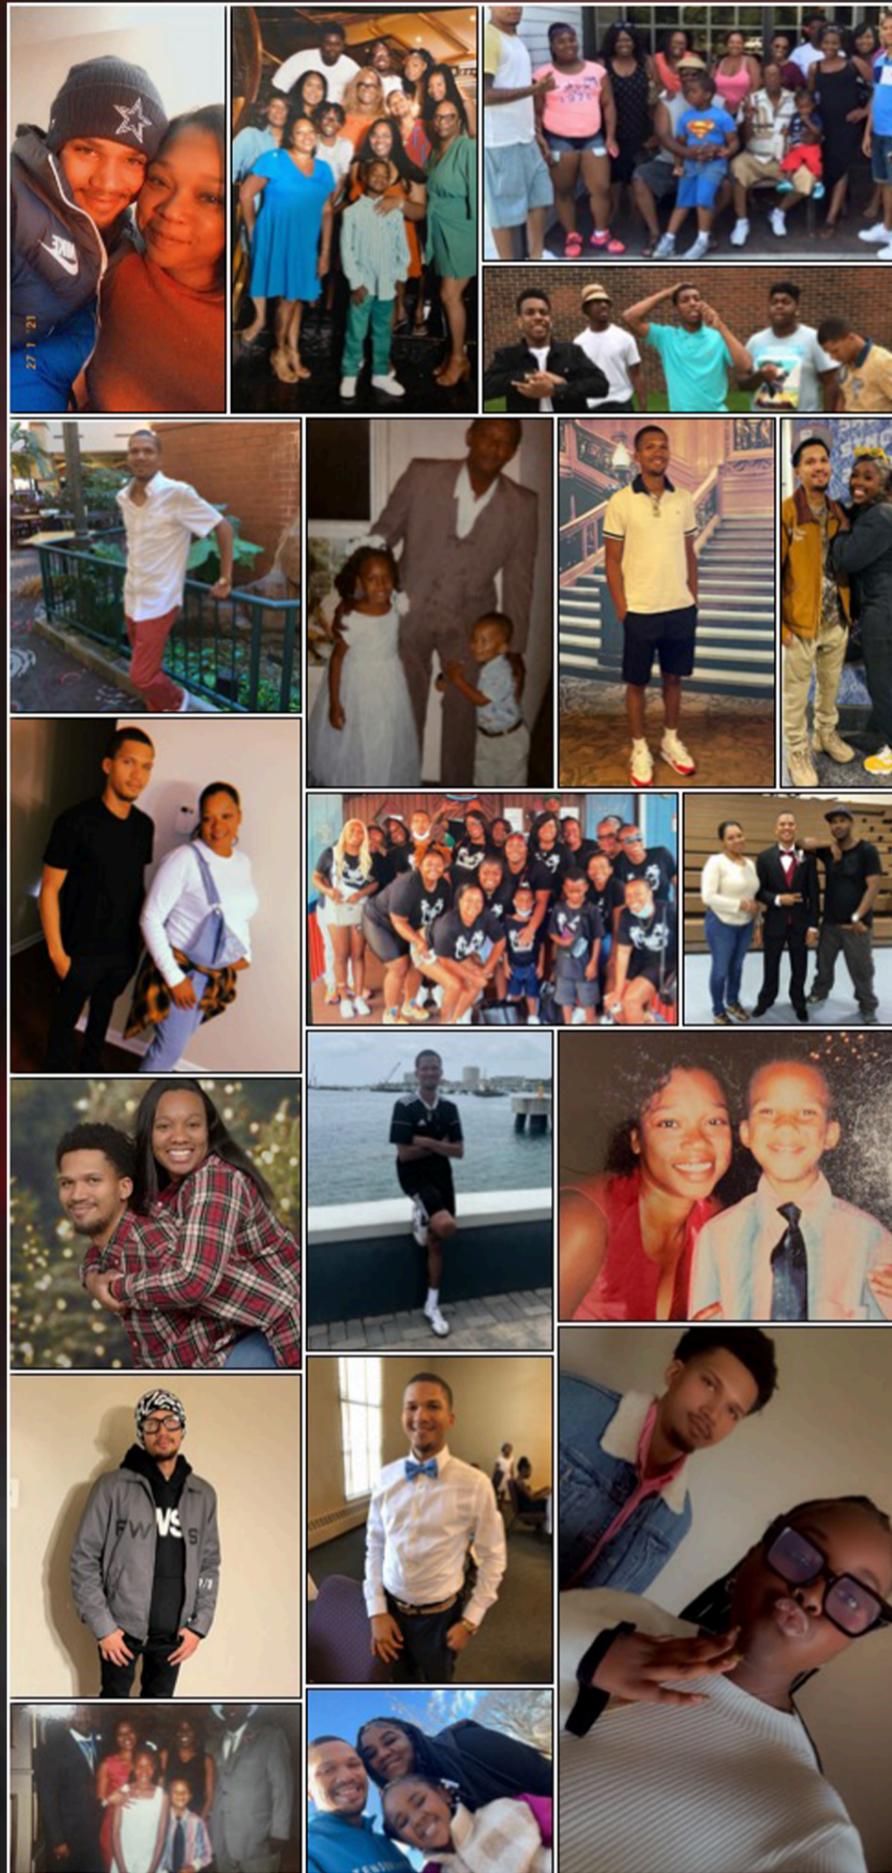

Family meant everything to Anthony. He cherished vacations and time spent together, especially moments filled with laughter, dancing, and pure joy. He loved to dance—not just with his feet, but with his whole spirit and BIG ENERGY, even if it meant being a little offbeat.

Anthony had an unwavering love for children and found deep fulfillment in teaching and mentoring young people through after-school programs such as the Boys & Girls Club. His patience, kindness, and genuine care made him a natural role model and a positive influence in the lives of many.

Anthony was preceded in death by his grandfather, Kenneth Thomas Grant; grandmother, Estella Myles; uncle, Lonnie Myles; aunt Monique Myles- Beatty, great-uncle, John Melvin Grant; and great-aunt, Carmellia Jackson.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving mother, Alison Grant; father, Anthony Myles; sisters, Kiera Grant, Morgan Myles, and Autumn Myles; and brother, Jalant Turner. He is also survived by his great-grandmother Alice Perry and grandmother Deborah Mack. His bonus family, Nikki Turner and Leo Smith; special friend, Bralen Greggs; aunts Megan Grant, Carmen Grant, SueAnne (Bryan Hicks) Myles, Regina (Curtis) Paige, Bettye (Ellis) Valentine, Gwen (Terrance) Harris, and LeVernon Wall; godmothers Heather and Heidi Grant; godfather Damien Sheppard; and uncles Larry Hawkins (Keitha), Charles Martin, and Bobby (Jeanette) McDaniel.

Anthony is lovingly remembered by his beloved cousins Channing Arnold, Myeisha Arnold, Roscoe "Quad" Bowman, Cyron Grant, and Kamar Kent; close friends Marshayla Young, Elijah McDaniel, Chris Swan, Tyriek Jones, Qujuanta Hutchins, and Joshua Williamson; along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members, and friends.

LOVING TRIBUTES

So, the last will be first.
Matthew: 20:16

You love me more than I understand. You knew me before I knew myself. You saw light in me years before I even could. You loved me before I knew what love was. I love you to pieces. I am your Pumpkin and I know you love me! I am your star player, your number one guy, and still your little boy, who loves his mom.

A.T.M- 2.6.26

Anthony, your name means strong and priceless. You embodied that.
Thank you.
Love Mom

A Note to My Brother

Anthony,
You were more than my brother, you were my best friend. I loved you deeply, and I always will. And if I could tell you again now, just like I told you then, I'd say this: you can do anything, and you can overcome anything.

You were my friend in moments when I felt alone, my protector when life felt overwhelming, and a constant reminder that no matter what happened in the world, there was always someone who had my back. There were times I leaned on your strength without you even knowing it, times when your courage gave me permission to be brave too.

And there were other moments when I wished I could take your burdens from you, the struggles you carried so quietly. I saw them. I saw you. And I want you to know that you never had to be strong alone.

If I haven't said it enough, I'm proud of you—proud of the man you were, the battles you fought, the compassion you showed, and the love you gave so freely. I am forever grateful to have walked this life with you by my side.

Love Your Sister,
Kiera

A Tribute to Anthony Myles II

As we say goodbye, we hold close the promise of Matthew 5:4: "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted." We grieve deeply because we loved deeply, and we pray that this comfort finds us in the quiet moments ahead.

In those moments, may we remember that there is a special place in the heart of God for the young, the vibrant, and the pure. Today, we celebrate that Anthony has transitioned to a place where, as Psalm 16:11 reminds us, there is "fullness of joy" and "pleasures forevermore."

May we find peace knowing you are in the company of your grandfather Kenneth.
Love Aunt Megan
