

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary

Ada D. Wilkins was born on February 5, 1971 to late William "Chipper" Rankin and Georgia Hadnot. The path of life called her home on December 8, 2021.

Ada grew up in Downtown Cincinnati, in Laura Homes. She went to St. Joseph Catholic School and went to high school at Purcell Marian. Ada was a clerical clerk for Hartford Research Company in the Cincinnati/Lexington area for many, many years until 2006. In 2006, she gave birth to her baby boy Geramey, and became a stay at home mom. She was a devoted wife, mom and friend to all of those around her. Ada was very outgoing, charismatic, and loved having a great time. Ada loved shopping, cooking, being with her boys and spending time on the road with her late husband Gary McKinstry. Ada had got the blessing to be a grandmother and loved her "mini me", Darlah very much. She loved spending time with her grandbaby. Darlah was her everything, Ada had ever wanted in her family. She will be forever and greatly missed, by her boys and granddaughter.

Ada is preceded in death by her father (Chipper), mother (Georgia), and also her husband (Gary), whom is greatly missed.

Ada leaves to cherish her memory, her siblings Lamont (Tonya) Wilkins, Harold Hadnot, Keisha Hadnot, Kevin Davis, and Amantu Caldwell; her boys, Courtney Wilkins, Dominique Wilkins, Germani (Keylynn) McKinstry, and Geramey McKinstry; her first grandbaby "mini me" Darlah Wilkins; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.
