“On The Death of the Beloved”

By John O'Donohue

Though we need to weep your loss,
You dwell in that safe place in our hearts,
Where no storm or night or pain can reach you.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF
HENRY ALBERTUS “PEEWEE” BRADLEY

SEPTEMBER 7, 1955 — AUGUST 27, 2026

Life Reflections

Today we honor and celebrate the life of one of Sumter's own, a pillar in this community, and one of the most memorable residents, Henry Albertus Bradley, affectionately known as "Pee Wee."

Henry's journey began on September 7, 1955, son of the late Alec Bradley, Sr. and Viola M. Bradley in Oswego, South Carolina. He departed this earthly life on Thursday, August 27, 2026, at Prisma Health Tuomey, Sumter, SC.

Henry received Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at a young age. He was a devoted lifetime member of Clark United Methodist Church of Oswego. He loved his church and was a dedicated member.

Henry was well known in his community, and loved by many friends and family. He enjoyed fishing, sitting on his back porch, attending city events, and dragstrip events. He also enjoyed visiting his friends at Four Flats and L & J Auto Repair.

He was employed at Nichols Concrete, Johnson Concrete, Bobcat Tires, and the City of Sumter until he retired. Henry graduated from Sumter High School in 1976.

Henry married the love of his life, Lillie Barno-Bradley in 2005. Their union has served as an example of extraordinary love, compassion, comical and generous. Henry whole-heartedly gave of himself to his wife, children, grandchildren, and great grandchild.

He leaves to cherish precious memories, his loving, loyal wife, Lillie Barno-Bradley; one daughter, Marcella Barno of Sumter, SC; one son, Natrad Barno of Greenville, SC; three grandchildren: Shayna Barno-Epps, Ariana Barno, and Jamari Green; one great grandchild, Amonie White; two brothers: Alec, Jr. (Monica) Bradley and Julius (Anita) Bradley; two godsons: Maurice Benbow and Blake Borden; one goddaughter, Brittany (Whitney) Burgess; one sister-in-law, Delores (Rodney) Marshall; brothers-in-law: James Bradley, Gerald Barno; a special fishing partner, brother-in-law, Bobby Robinson; best friends: Mike Leneau, Bernard Flowers, and Kurt Jenkins and Wayne Durant; special nieces, Dr. Stephanie (Ray) Mathis, Shashuanna "Six" (Shawn), and Stacey; and a host of other nieces, nephews, family and friends.

In addition to his parents, Henry was preceded in death by one son, Desmond L. Wells; one grandson, Raqwane Vazquez; one great grandson, Jasion King; two sisters, Frances Ann Bradley and Johnnie Mae Darby; three brothers: James H. L. Ellison "Epp," and Willie J. Bradley; one nephew, Julius T. Bradley; one sister-in-law, Mary Robinson; uncles, aunts, and his maternal and paternal grandparents.
