

Remember Thee

Your gentle face and patient smile,
With sadness we recall,
You had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.

The voice is mute and stilled the heart
That loved us well and true,
Ah, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.

You are not forgotten loved one
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can take your vacant place.

Mundwiler Funeral Home - Milbank, South Dakota

Nancy Jean (Lindskov) Bloem was born on March 30, 1946, in Huron, SD, to Noel and Emma Ferne (Collins) Lindskov. She was the fifth child of eight children. She grew up on the family farm southwest of Doland, SD. She attended the nearby country school and later the grade school in Doland. She graduated from high school in 1964. Following high school, Nancy attended Northern State College in Aberdeen, SD, graduating with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. She began her teaching career in Milbank, SD, in 1968. Two years later, she attended the University of South Dakota in Vermillion where she earned the necessary hours to become a certified librarian. After two years as a school librarian in Canova, SD, she returned to Milbank where she spent the rest of her teaching years either in the classroom or the elementary and middle school libraries.

Nancy was united in marriage with Lester "Ross" R. Bloem on April 13, 1974, in Milbank. They spent most of their married life on a small acreage north of town. They enjoyed traveling during summer vacations visiting friends and family. During their travels, Nancy was able to visit all but three of the fifty states. She enjoyed reading, doing jigsaw puzzles, watching old movies on television, and decorating for the various seasons. She was a member of MARTA, the local retired teachers' association, and Valley Baptist Church in Milbank where she was baptized by immersion after accepting Jesus as her Savior. She helped out with their AWANA program and WMF for many years.

Nancy is survived by her husband, Lester "Ross" R. Bloem of Milbank, SD; three sisters: Charlotte Johnson of Greenville, MI; Beverly Stanford and Cheryl (Mark) Meier, both of Sioux Falls, SD; one brother, Johnny Lindskov of Doland, SD; two sisters-in-law: Janeva Bray of Arlington Heights, IL; and Kaye (Ken) Dohn of Dallas, TX; as well as many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; sisters: Patricia Hinkle and Linda Lindskov; brother, Donald (Candace) Lindskov; brothers-in-law: Ronald Johnson and Jerry Stanford; sister-in-law, Gloria Lindskov; and two nephews: Christen Lindskov and Noel Helgoe. Also preceding her in death were her brother-in-law, Kenneth Bray; and sister-in-law, Nancy Alice Bloem.
