

From Your Seven Children

We came to you as tiny hands,
Seven hearts you chose to guide.
You held us close through every storm,
With love you never tried to hide.
You were our first safe place in life,
Our teacher, friend, and home.
With every lesson that you gave,
You shaped the people we've become.
You dried our tears, you shared our joys,
You listened when we cried.
You stood behind us, strong and proud,
Always, always on our side.
Though now we walk this road apart,
And cannot see your face,
We feel you in each step we take,
In every quiet, tender space.
In how we love, in how we give,
In how we care and share,
A piece of you lives on in us—
Your heart is always there.

Obituary

Gwendolyn "Gwenn" Brewer, 69, of Cincinnati, Ohio, died on November 8, 2025. She was born on March 6, 1956, in Queens, New York.

Her life revolved around her family, and she lovingly dedicated herself to her children. Being a mother and grandmother was her greatest joy, and she nurtured them with endless patience, quiet strength, and unwavering love.

Gwenn had a passion for being on the water, the arts, fine dining, and any activity that enabled her to express her creativity and contribute to enhancing the world's beauty.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Grady and Beulah Moore; her two loves, Michael Brewer and George Bailey; grandparents, and her brothers, Stanley and Grady.

Gwenn is survived by her children: Shemeka (Rennie) Valentin, Tiffanye (Rich) Medley, Michelle Brewer, Valeri (Marlon) Stewart, Trinitii Brewer, Candice (Tracy) Heaberlin, and Michael (Amber) Brewer. She also leaves behind her cherished grandchildren, Mykle, Monique, Brendon, Donavan, Madelyn, Gwyneth, Devon, Darren, Aarlin, Brayden, Mason, Jackson, Camden, Storm, Logan, Greyson, RaShauna and Auri; her great-grandchildren, and her sibling, Carolyn Taft, as well as nieces, cousins, and extended family members who will forever treasure her memory.
