

Reflections of His Life

2 Corinthians 5:1 (KJV)

“For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.”

Alexander Boyd, Jr. was born on February 23, 1949, in Columbia, South Carolina, to the late Alexander Boyd, Sr. and Annie Boyd. He departed this life on April 23, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of love, resilience, and devotion to family.

Alexander, affectionately known to many as "Al" received his education in the Public Schools of Richland County, South Carolina. He later became a skilled painter and worked faithfully in his trade until he became disabled. Through all stages of life, Al was known for his strength, humility, and quiet determination.

He was preceded in death by his loving parents; two brothers, John Henry Boyd and David Boyd; three sisters, Lilly Geiger, Lacey Murphy, and Shirley Ann Hudson; and one beloved grandson, JaQuan Ashford.

Those left to mourn his passing and cherish his memories include his two daughters, Monica Roberts-Oliver (Tony) of Baltimore Maryland, and Petrina Boyd-Whetstone (Jarvis) of Columbia South Carolina; one son, Juan B. Durer of Eastover, South Carolina; One brother, Raymond Boyd of Blythewood, South Carolina; Four sisters, Nonnie Mitchell and Lila Turner of Columbia, South Carolina, Lena Colvin and Josephine Smith (Joseph) of Blythewood, South Carolina; Nine grandchildren, twenty great grandchildren along with a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and dear friends who will miss him dearly.

We find comfort in knowing that Alexander Boyd, Jr. has answered his call to rest and now dwells in eternal peace. Though he is no longer with us in body, his spirit lives through the love he shared, the lessons he taught, and the memories that will forever remain in our hearts. We take solace in God's promise that one day, we shall meet again. w and loved him.
