Luanne was born on January 5, 1937, in Granton, Wisconsin, to Otto and Flossie (Davis) Schmidtke. She was united in marriage to Ralph Baker, with whom she shared many wonderful years of marriage and travel until his passing in 1998.

Throughout her career, Luanne worked as an administrative assistant in the manufacturing and warehouse industry. She had a heart for service and dedicated much of her life to helping others, regularly volunteering with hospice, visiting the elderly, and organizing group bank trips. In her free time, she enjoyed quilting.

Luanne's family includes her daughter Karen Waldron; grandson Scott (Lauren) Spangler, of Texas; sister Lola Brown of Lake Forest, IL; and several cherished nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband Ralph; son Allan Spangler; brother Algene Schmidtke; and two sisters: Bonnie Degenhardt and Rita Adler.

TO THOSE I LOVE.

When I am gone, release me, let me go,
So I can move into my afterglow.
You mustn't tie me down with your tears;
Let's be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love - you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me awhile, if grieve you must;
then let your grief be comforted with trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."
