In Loving Memory of
Joseph Maurice Charlette
Aka “No Gas”

February 26, 1958—February 20, 2021

Joseph Maurice Charlette was born Wednesday, February 26, 1958 at Rudduck, Mile 57, near Pukatawagan, Manitoba to Marie Rose and Jim Charlette.

Joey loved fishing, camping, guiding, hunting and everything that involved the great outdoors. He loved nature and an adventure, and liked to travel and explore. He spent many years guiding at Kississing Lake. He recently completed his lifelong dream to build his dream cabin at Kississing Lake.

Joey spent a lot of time in Sherridon and lived in Flin Flon with his lifelong partner Sylvia Caribou and their children. He spent a lot of time with family and friends who shared the same interests. Joey had a sense of humor and always like to joke around with everyone.

Joey passed away suddenly Saturday, February 20, 2021, with his partner by his side during their many journeys on the highway.

Joey is survived by his common law partner Sylvia Caribou; children Rosanne (Carson), Jenny (Trevan Razaylee Keenan), Amanda (Georgina), Patricia, Harmony, Hailey, Jim, Nick Jr., (Nick Sr.), Daniel), Flora (Tayla), Shyanne, Lovelyn (Maria, Aleana, Owen, Lincyn), Avee, Robson, Gerald (Loretta), Lawrence, Nicole, Margaret; special grandson Terrell Charlette; mother Rose Marie Charlette; siblings Mary (Gabe) Head, Patrick Shone, Emile (Tammy) Shone, Olga Charlette, Marie Clair Charlette, Marnie (Melvin) Monkmon, Kenneth (Shyanne) Charlette, Vivian Charlette, Baptiste Charlette; nephews Dennis, Doug Charlette, John, Leo Patterson, Shianna (Patrick); uncles and aunts Joe Dumas, Marie Dumas, Phillip Charlette, Mary Jane Nicholas, Evelyn Nicholas, Max Charlette.

Joey was predeceased by his dad Jim Charlette; daughter Sandra Charlette; brothers Zack Black, Charlie Black, James Charlette; sister Nora Black. If we forgot anyone it was not intentional.
