

White Chariot

During your journey on your final flight home.
White wings will carry you and you will be flown.
To the pearly gates of Heaven, where they will usher you in.
To the feet of your Lord, your Saviour, and your friend.
He will hold you in his arms and the angels will sing.
As another one of His children is delivered by white wings.

Reflections of Life

Teriyah RaShá Herbin left this earthly home on Saturday, March 7, 2026, to make heaven a little more “Lit”. Teriyah was born on August 22, 2011. She brought light, laughter and a lasting impression wherever she went.

A student at Eastern Alamance High School, Teriyah was known by her peers as a fun, outgoing, and opinionated individual. She loved cheering, dancing, and music. One of her favorite songs was “Busted”, by Ron Isley, which she knew word for word. Teriyah was a very competitive and outspoken person. She was going to tell you exactly what was on her mind, and she was going to try her best to be the best at everything she put her mind to.

Teriyah is survived by parents Tiffany and (Seth Bryan) and Thomas Herbin; brothers: Trynton Wiley, Javion Herbin, Jaylen Herbin, and Jeremiah Blackwell; sister: T’Kariya Wiley and Tadryel Bryan; her beloved nephew Trystan Wiley better known to Teriyah as “Buddy”; grandparents: Sheila and Willie Williams, Walter and Portias Graves, Pamela Herbin, Thomas and Gloria Richardson; great grandmothers: Wanda Herbin and Minnie Coleman-Trent; uncle Travis Graves; aunts: TaJuana Graves and Tequila Herbin; first cousins: Talyn, Traven, TaMiyah, TaLeah, Kahree, Rashad; Godmother: Neka Swann; God sisters: Tynia Swann and Clarcencia McCray; special friends: Maddie J, Kayla & Bailey, as well as a host of bonus family, great aunts and great uncles, cousins and friends.

Although Teriyah left this earth way too soon, her beautiful, spunky and loving spirit will live on through the memories we shared with her.
