REMEMBERING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF Homer GARRY JR.

Homer Garry, Jr., was born on September 24, 1949, to the late Homer, Sr., and Vera Garry, in Hawthorne, Nevada. His parents moved to Las Vegas, Nevada, after his birth. He was the oldest of a blended family. Homer grew up in Las Vegas and attended Westside School and graduated from Las Vegas High School in 1968. Homer was preceded in death by three children: Vicky Jones, Paula Garry, and Emory Garry. He was also preceded in death by his stepmother, Augusta M. Garry, and stepfather, Mathew Howard, Sr., and two sisters, Paula Garry-Johnson and Patricia Howard.

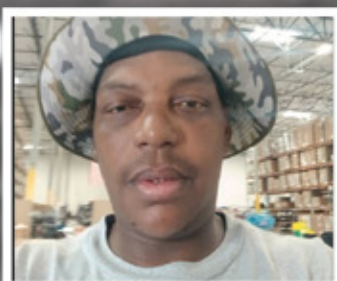

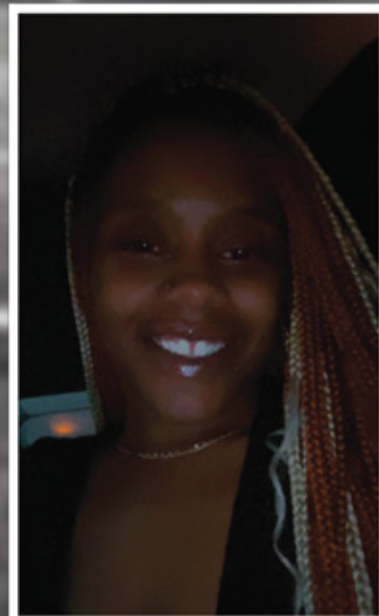

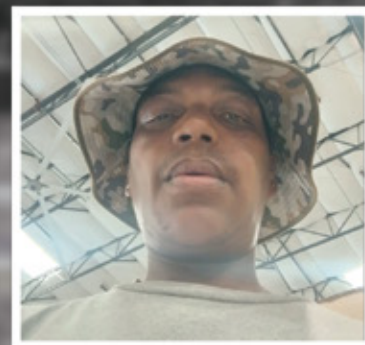

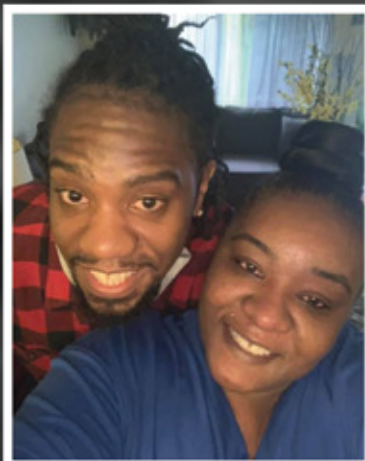

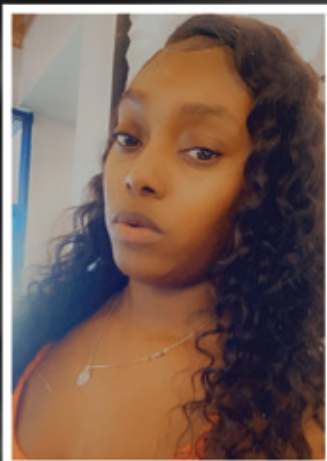

Homer was united in holy matrimony in 1983 to Valerie Garry, a union filled with love and devotion. He cherished a special bond with his son, Zapdula, and his stepson, Lamaar, which was built on mutual love, respect, and connection. He was a special in-law and was loved by Valerie's family.

Homer worked in downtown Las Vegas for many years, building a reputation for dedication and reliability. His work ethic was unsurpassed, and he was respected by his superiors, co-workers, and guests of the hotel. He retired from the "D Hotel" in 2023, after an impressive (27) years of service.

Homer was a man of many talents. He had a creative passion for drawing, and a love for cooking—always eager to try new recipes. He never hesitated to tout his wife, Valerie's, cooking skills. Homer was a loyal and enthusiastic sports fan of the Raiders football team, and the Lakers basketball team. He really enjoyed cheering them on. Homer never met a stranger. And had an infectious smile. His intelligence, curiosity, and wide-ranging knowledge made every conversation meaningful. Homer cherished his family deeply, especially his grandchildren. He was known for capturing events or occasions through photographs.

Homer's life left a lasting imprint on all who knew him, reflecting strength, kindness, and grace. Although he has departed from this earth, his love, joy, and spirit impact will remain in our hearts forever. His memory will live on in the heart of everyone he touched. Homer was truly blessed to have known that he was loved by so many. May God's grace and favor rest upon him, as we honor the love that he had and shared for all his family. With our love we celebrate the home-going of our beloved Homer Garry, Jr.- a devoted husband, father, brother, grandfather, and great grandfather.

Homer leaves to mourn his passing, and cherish his memory, a devoted wife and companion, Valerie Garry, (3) sons; Homer Zabdula Griffin, Remoh Garry, and Lamaar Alexander, (3) brothers; Hezdral L. Garry, Micheal (Cathy) Howard, and Mathew (Chelsea) Howard, Jr., (6) sisters; Helen (Jimmie) Washington, Andrea "Neisee" (Edgar) Garry-Sayles, Jackie (Roy) Miller, Cathy (Clarence) Young, Daisy (Larry) Bailey, and Kimberly (Gerald) Childs, all of Las Vegas, Nevada, (16) grandchildren; Dwane, Tesheena, Shanel, DeShawn, Shanea, Artavia, Derrick, Shaquiyia, Elbert, Remoh, Jr., Danny, Alexis, Monya, Thyreisha, Angel, and Yevette, and (63) great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

HONORING
THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF Homer
GARRY JR.

"When you were born, you cried, and the world rejoiced.
Live your life in such a manner that when you die,
the world cries, and you rejoice."

Indian Proverb
"Our Brother – The Patriarch"

Our brother, Junior, reminded us so much of our father. It was uncanny how much he looked and had mannerisms like him. They were both quiet and laid back but enjoyed a great joke. Junior was a gifted artist. He inherited his talent for painting from our father. We really enjoyed being around him. We never shared a harsh word. We were happy every time we were in his presence. We shared so many fond family memories growing up on the Westside. We admired his work ethic and were proud and blessed to have had a brother who showed his love for us.

Junior, your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure.
You are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure.
Death leaves a heartache no one can heal.
Love leaves a memory no one can steal.
Love Always,
Andrea (Neisee) and Hezdral

A star shone bright, now gone too soon,
A heart beats sorrow, a love undone.
You chased dreams, laughed, and lived with fire,
Now memories linger, a bittersweet desire.
Though grief cuts deep, we'll hold you near,
In stories told and love that's crystal clear.
Your smile, your smile, it lit the way,
In our hearts; brother, you'll stay.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We, the family of Homer Garry, sincerely thank everyone for your love, phone calls, and concern during this difficult time. Please continue to pray for and lift up our family as we journey on without our dear brother on this side of heaven.

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation."
