FUNERAL HOMES

Sharon Lea Carrier
November 16, 1940 ~ June 28, 2026

You Gave Us Life

Yours was the first heartbeat that began the rhythm of our beating

Your blood flowing life into us before we ever took our first breath

Yours was the first smile to meet our exploring gaze your lips the first to press a whisper kiss upon our cheeks

Yours was the first love we've known, gentle and warm and safe.

creating a bond tight enough to hold and strong enough to stretch through time

Yours were the first arms that held us close embracing us with your love releasing us as we took our first steps in life and into the world

yet always open wide to welcome us home again

Our firsts began with you. mom

because you gave us LIFE

And we love you for it!
