OBITUARY

William "Jeff" Williams was born on January 8, 1955, to Marion Williams and Lottie Mae Shields Williams. He attended Gibbs High School. He confessed Christ at an early age and became a member of Elbethel M.B. Church under the leadership of Rev. J.A. Miller. Jeff was both shy and outspoken. He always said "what he meant, and he meant what he said."

He later decided that Mississippi was not the place for him, as job opportunities were limited. Jeff relocated to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where he resided for ten years. Unfortunately, due to unforeseen circumstances, he returned to Mississippi.

He went on to work with BFI Management, where he remained until his retirement. Jeff's passing was untimely, and leaves a deep void in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Jeff leaves to cherish his fond memories one son, Edward George of Texas; two sisters, Josephine Williams Hood of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Mary Williams (Ricky) Scott; three brothers, Samuel "Jack" Williams, Wilson Williams, and Mem Williams, all of Yazoo City, Mississippi.

He was preceded in death by Willie Anderson, Charles Anderson, Jesse Lee Williams, Washington Williams, and Mary Devoice.

A Golden Heart

A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard-working hands at rest
It broke our hearts to see you go,
God only takes the best.
They say that memories are golden,
Well, maybe that is true,
But we never wanted memories,
We only wanted you.
Your life was love and labour,
Your love for your family true,
You did your best for all of us,
We will always remember you.
We sat beside your bedside,
Our hearts were crushed and sore,
We did our duty to the end,
'Til we could do no more.
In tears we watched you sinking,
We watched you fade away,
And though our hearts were breaking,
We know you could not stay.
Our lips cannot speak how we loved you,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say,
But God only knows how we miss you,
In our home that is lonely today.
,Your Siblings

From Your Son

Words cannot describe the loss I feel
Saying farewell to you.
But heaven chose to give you wings
And now it's time you flew.
I wish that we could have more time,
That God had let you stay.
Forever would not be long enough
But I would take one day.
I wish I had just one more chance.
That tender smile,
To laugh with you again
Just for a little while
Gone to soon but not forgotten,
Forever you will remain
Until I see you again.
,Your Son

We Had A Wonderful Uncle

We had a wonderful uncle
One who never grew old
And his heart was solid as gold
That's the way it will always be
But takes heed and make sure he likes what he sees
We can never accept defeat because
We always had a wonderful uncle

Love your nieces and nephews
