David Charles Hove, 63, of Jewell, Iowa, passed away on December 5, 2025, at MercyOne Hospital in Des Moines.

David was born on September 13, 1962, in Story City, Iowa, to Charles and Doris (Conger) Hove. He grew up in the Jewell area and graduated from South Hamilton High School in 1981.

On June 26, 1982, David married the love of his life, Leah Johnson. Together they made their home in rural Jewell, where David dedicated his life to farming. He worked with hogs, cattle, and crops, and loved every aspect of farming. David was a member of the Central Iowa Coop, where he served on the board for several years. He was a past member of the Community Church of Kamrar and St. Paul's Lutheran Church near Jewell.

David's family includes his wife, Leah; and his sister, Sue (Brad) Olson of Story City. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Twenty Third Psalm

THE Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
