LELA D. WILLIAMS

John 11:25

*Jesus said to him, "I am the resurrection and the life.
He who believes in me will live, even though he dies."*

Don't weep for me

We thank You Lord for the passing of our sister. We exalt Your name for the good life she lived. We pray oh Lord, that everlasting life be given unto her."

"Almighty Father, grant that our sister who has passed from this life may come to share your Eternal happiness."

"Comfort my heart in this time of loss. May you, the God of all grace, make me holy, strong, and filled with peace."

"Pray for strength, memories, unity, faith "growth, emotional wisdom, and to honor her memory."

Lela "Nell" D. Williams lived a life full of love, service, and joy. Born in Austin, Texas, on February 16, 1960, to Roger Ates and Mattie Williams, Nell was a beloved daughter, mother, sister, and grandmother. While both of her parents have passed, her memory continues to live on through her son Matthew Alexander of Manor, TX, and her cherished grandchildren, Matthew Travis Alexander Jr. and Mya Ja' Alexander.

She is also survived by her brothers Ronnie Jones (wife Joyce Jones) of San Antonio, TX, LeRoy Williams (wife Crisfel Williams) of Martinsburg, WV, James Williams of Elgin, TX, and Joseph Williams of Austin, TX. Her brothers David Williams and Sam Williams, who preceded her in death, and are fondly remembered.

Nell dedicated 31 years to the University of Texas, where she worked until her anticipated retirement in the coming year. She was known for her generous spirit, always willing to go the extra mile to help others, and when she needed support, she never hesitated to call for backup. Her kindness and willingness to assist others touched many lives throughout the years.

Death may have taken you away from us, but it can never take away your memories. You will always be in our hearts in your own special place. Rest in Heaven!

Our family would like to thank each one who came out to this life celebration for Lela, Aunt Nell, to a lot of you. Thank you for your prayers, support and love during this difficult time. Please continue to pray for our family.
