THE OBITUARY

Samuel D. Morrison was born on September 20, 1937, in Jamestown, South Carolina, son of the late John Thomas Morrison and Addie Middleton Morrison. He peacefully entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, November 5, 2025, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Samuel was educated in the public schools of Berkeley County. He began his working years in the pulpwood industry in Jamestown before relocating to Baltimore, Maryland, in the 1960s in search of better opportunities. There, he became employed with Bethlehem Steel, where he worked faithfully as a forklift driver until his retirement.

While in Baltimore, Samuel was a devoted member of The Church of God, where he served faithfully until his health began to decline. He was known for his quiet spirit, gentle heart, and steadfast faith.

In his leisure time, Samuel enjoyed fishing whenever he could and was an avid fan of both the Baltimore Ravens and the Baltimore Orioles. In February 2024, he returned home to South Carolina and made his residence in Columbia to be near his son, David.

Cherishing his memory and celebrating his legacy are his loving children, Emma Jean Witherspoon, Deloris Simmons, David S. Morrison, Jr. (Debra), and Anthony L. Morrison; cherished grandchildren, Andrew Simmons, Andre Simmons, DeAndra Morrison, Ashley Robinson (Josh), Stevenson Witherspoon, David Morrison, Shaylyn Witherspoon, Ryan Morrison, and Cody Morrison; one beloved great-grandchild, Elynn Bennett; devoted siblings; Lillie Mae Young and Adline Washington; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

Samuel's life was one of quiet strength, faith, and love for his family. He will be deeply missed and fondly remembered by all who knew him.

I'VE CHANGED MY ADDRESS

I've changed my address to Heaven

I've crossed the Great Divide.

I know there's no sorrow or crying,

Because I've reached the other side.

I am so happy to be here,

for the Lord Himself I see.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

I bid this world goodbye.

I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.

I have no burdens or heartaches

And from tears I am now free.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

I'm safe forevermore.

For the Lord built a mansion

And my name is on the door.

You can find us walking together,

For where He is, I'll always be.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

That's the place you'll find me.
