Obituary

Born November 26, 2009, Bella came into this world as a bright shining beacon of joy. She was nurturing towards others, adventurous, and loved making people laugh. She was an aspiring artist, piano player, and adored the transformative power of cosmetics. She was honest, independent, and sharp with her humor. Bella would always tell it like it is.

She leaves to mourn her passing: her beloved cat Cutie-Pie, Mother Kristina, Grandpa Richard, Grandma Sharlene, Grandma Loren, Auntie Tai, many other Aunts and Uncles, all her many Cousins, surrogate family, and spiritual family.
