

Evangelist Beverly Ivy, Eulogist

Home Going Celebration of Elizabeth Ann Bridgeman

Prelude

Processional
Family

Prayer
Pastor Jacqueline Richmond-Dillard

Scripture Old & New Testament
Minister Kenny Fuentes

Solo
Zachary Clark

Poem
Brenda Malone

Remarks
(2 Minutes Please)
Family & Friends

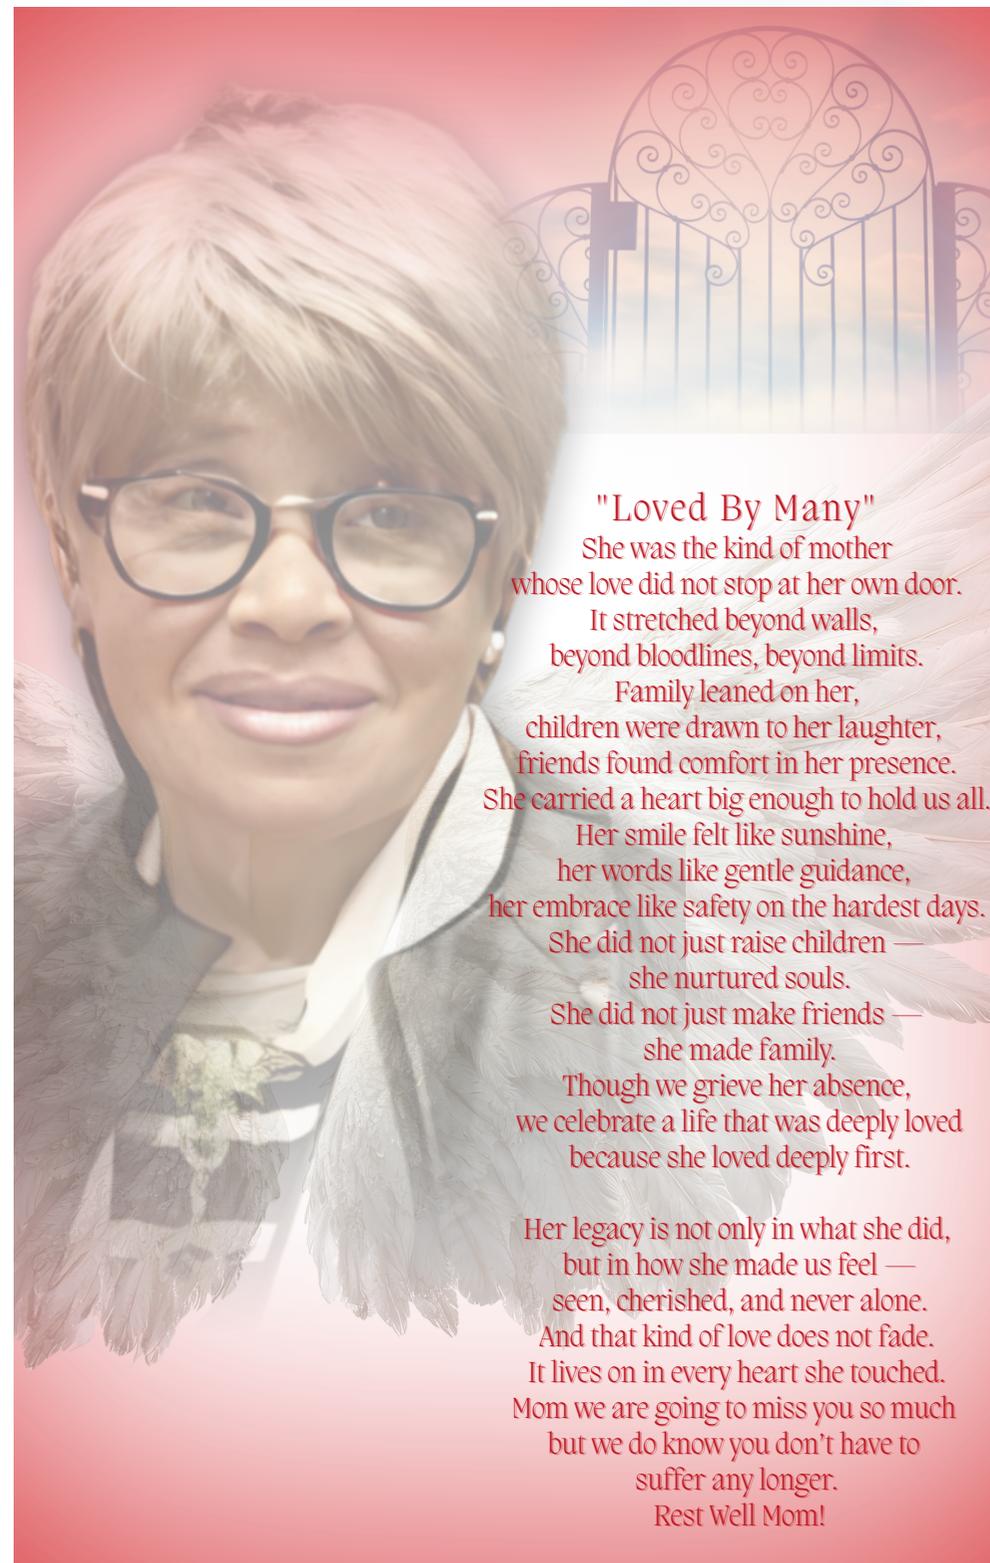

Obituary
Tameka Malone

Solo
Zachary Clark

Eulogy
Evangelist Beverly Ivy

Crowning Children

Committal    Benediction    Recessional

"Loved By Many"
She was the kind of mother
whose love did not stop at her own door.
It stretched beyond walls,
beyond bloodlines, beyond limits.
Family leaned on her,
children were drawn to her laughter,
friends found comfort in her presence.
She carried a heart big enough to hold us all.
Her smile felt like sunshine,
her words like gentle guidance,
her embrace like safety on the hardest days.
She did not just raise children —
she nurtured souls.
She did not just make friends —
she made family.
Though we grieve her absence,
we celebrate a life that was deeply loved because she loved deeply first.
Her legacy is not only in what she did,
but in how she made us feel —
seen, cherished, and never alone.
And that kind of love does not fade.
It lives on in every heart she touched.
Mom we are going to miss you so much but we do know you don't have to suffer any longer.
Rest Well Mom!

Her LEGACY

Mrs. Ann Bridgeman passed away peacefully at University of Michigan Health - Sparrow Hospital in Lansing, Michigan, on Thursday, February 12, 2026. She was 84 years old. Ann was born Sunday, April 6, 1941, in Greenfield Tennessee to the parents of Sonny and Jessie Malone.

Ann relocated to Elgin, Illinois where she made her home for over 20 years. She later moved to Lansing, Michigan and has been a resident for over 45 years. Ann attended and graduated from Weakly County High School in Greenfield, Tennessee. Professionally, Ann dedicated many years of her life to caring for others as a caregiver. She eventually retired after working a variety of positions throughout her career. She was a long-time dedicated member of Eliezer Temple Church in Lansing, Michigan. Anyone who knew her well also knew how much she loved playing Bingo; if there was a hall nearby, you could always find her there. She also took great joy in collecting all kinds of figurines and knick-knacks over the years.

Above all else, her family meant the world to her. She was deeply loved and will be greatly missed by so many people.

She leaves behind to cherish loving memories, her loving daughters, Katrina Malone of Carpentersville, Illinois, Brenda Malone of Lansing, Michigan, Lynda (Johnny) Hall of Belvidere, Illinois, and Dianne Bridgeman of Lansing, Michigan. Her memory will also be cherished by her sons, Michael Malone of Elgin, Illinois, and Anthony Malone of Lansing, Michigan; sister, Minnie Jean Jones of Elgin, Illinois, and brother, Larry Malone of Weir, Mississippi; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends, whom she loved dearly.

She was preceded in death by her loving daughter, Tabbitha Bridgeman; great-grandsons, Brandon Taylor and Lil C; father, Sonny Malone; mother, Jessie Malone; and brothers, Harry Malone and Jerry Malone.