

I Thought of You Today

Son, I thought of you with love today but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday and days before that too, I think of you in silence I often speak your name. All I have are memories and your picture in a frame. Your memory is my keepsake with which I'll never part. God has you in His keeping I have you in my heart.

Obituary

De'Marko "Marko" Page was born on September 18, 1993, to Annette Y. Drain and Demetris Page. He departed this life on June 15, 2024, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

De'Marko was the baby we prayed for. He was born with the brightest smile. A smile so bright that when he came into the room he made everyone else smile. Marko didn't play about his MOMMA. He loved all of his family most especially his children.

De'Marko attended Aiken High School. He was very outstanding. He was a fast learner and self-motivated. As a child, he spent a lot of time with his mentor, Mr. Green.

Marko loved to dress, listen to music, dance, and hang out with family and friends. He loved dogs. He was the life of the party. He loved to celebrate the holidays with his family.

De'Marko was a protector. He always looked out for his brothers and sisters. He had a caring spirit that will truly be missed.
