She was an active member of the LDS church serving in several positions: 19 years in the Stake Relief Society presidency, and 15 years as the Director of the Family Records Extraction program until it was discontinued in 2010. She and her husband Glenn were members of the Canyon Rim Ward for over 50 years and developed many lifelong friendships there.

Virginia loved gardening and spent many hours cultivating and caring for their beautiful yard. She was very proud of her 60+ rose bushes.
