Obituary

Corwin Felton McCrimon was born on December 18, 1968, in Cleveland, Ohio, to Benjamin McCrimon II and Jensie McCrimon. From an early age, he confessed his belief in Christ as Lord and Savior, carrying that love in his heart even though he did not attend church regularly. He received his education through East High School and later went on to earn his GED, showing perseverance and dedication to his growth.

Corwin was a devoted father, brother, grandfather, uncle, and friend. His love, compassion, and kindness touched all who knew him. He found joy in caring for his family, playing card games, and creating good times with those he loved most. Known for his legendary catchphrases, he brought laughter and light wherever he went.

On September 13, 2025, at the age of 56, Corwin departed this life, leaving behind memories of warmth and love that will be cherished forever. He was preceded in death by his parents, two Brothers, four sisters and one son, Khalil.

Corwin is survived by two children, La'Leah Manning, and Juwaun Pulliam; four siblings, Sammy Watters, Pearl McCrinnon, Nickitae McCrimon and Marcus McCrimom (Tamera); three grandchildren, Quinten, Journey, and Cashmere; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other family and dear friends.

Though his earthly journey has ended, Corwin's spirit of joy, his words, and his love will continue to live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know him.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
