A Life Well Lived

A life that touched so many hearts,
A soul that did her part
With Love and Kindness, day by day.
She led the Lord's own way
Now she rests in peace above,
Surrounded by eternal love
Her memory we will always keep,
While we cherish the time we had,
And the love she freely gave.

Obituary

Ida Mae Price King, affectionately known as “Mousey,” was born May 3, 1948, in Johnston County to the late Matthew and Mattie Price. She was preceded in death by her brother, James, and her sister, Sherry Smith. She peacefully entered into eternal rest on October 1, 2026, in the comfort of her home, surrounded by her loved ones.

Ida joined church at an early age, first at First Baptist Church in Selma, NC, and later at Giles Chapel Free Will Baptist Church in Pine Level, NC. Ida attended Richard B. Harrison High School before leaving school to attend Job Corps, where she studied printing and embroidery. Upon leaving Job Corps, she moved to Washington, where she lived with her Uncle Billy Richardson and Uncle Robert Price. Ida worked at GTE Sylvania and Shallcross before moving to California with her brother James and Uncle Robert Richardson. While in California, she worked as an apartment manager and also became a personal assistant to the owner of the apartments, Ms. Daughtry.

Ida leaves to cherish and treasure her memory: her son, Johnny (Catherine) of Goldsboro, NC; three grandchildren, Courtney Nichelle and Tiffany Michelle of Kenly, NC, and Johnathan Christopher of Goldsboro, NC; six great-grandchildren, Aniyah Lanee’, Triston Raheem, Trenton Rashan, Tallyah Renee’, Kacen Micah, and Imani Denise, all of Kenly, NC; two sisters, Irma (Kenneth) of Selma, NC, and Mary (Thurman) of Pine Level, NC; four brothers, Joseph (Peggy) of Pine Level, NC, Matthew (Kathy) of Miami, Florida, Major of the home, and Milton (Tayna) of Knightdale, NC; two special family friends, Hubert (Sharon) of Selma, NC, and Lavern of Clayton, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

While the family grieves her absence, they rejoice in knowing that her suffering has ended and that she now rests peacefully in the loving arms of her Savior. Her legacy of faith, unconditional love, hospitality, wisdom, generosity, and laughter will live on through the countless lives she touched. She fought a good fight, she finished the course, she kept the faith.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt appreciation to Garner Oncology, United Health, J-Cat, Heartland Hospice, and Meals on Wheels for the care, support, and kindness shown to Ida and her family.
