

I Have a Place in Heaven

*I have a place in heaven
Please don't sing sad songs for me,
Forget your grief and fears,
For I am in a perfect place
Away from pain and tears.
It's far away from hunger
And hurt and want and pride,
I have a place in Heaven
With the Master at my side.
My life on earth was very good,
As earthly life can go,
But Paradise is so much more
Than anyone can know.
My heart is filled with happiness
And sweet rejoicing, too.
To walk with God is perfect peace,
A joy forever new.*

James "Jim" William Harms was born on January 18, 1955 to Kenneth and Gloria (Van Hoorn) Harms at St. Bernard's Hospital in Milbank, SD. James was baptized and confirmed at Trinity Lutheran Church in Corona, SD. He grew up in Corona and attended school there until 9th grade. After his education he worked on the Gerhart Aschwedge farm until he was 18. Then he worked at Milbank Mutual for a summer. He then took a job at the granite quarry for a couple of years before later working at the Big Stone Power Plant during its construction. Jim went back to the quarry for a bit before driving gravel truck for his cousin. In 1976, Jim moved to Las Vegas, NV. In Summer of 1994, he married Linda (Boyer) in Las Vegas, NV. The couple was blessed with their son, Justin. Jim worked at a casino where he was a slot attendant and went to school to become a slot technician, he worked repairing slot machines until May 4, 2002. He then ran his HVAC business until 2016, when he fully retired. In June 2021, he moved to Milbank, SD. Jim was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Corona. He enjoyed having a beer at the Wildlife bar in Corona. Jim's parents owned the bar when he was a kid and he had many fond memories of time spent there. He also enjoyed auto mechanics in his younger years. Jim is survived by his son: Justin Harms of Milbank, SD; two sisters: Debbie (Brian) Frerichs of Corona, SD; and Dawn (Bob) Dineen of Sioux Falls, SD; and one brother, Joel Harms of Las Vegas, NV, and many nieces and nephews. Jim is preceded in death by his parents; wife, Linda, and special dog, L.J.
