CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

LARRY MICHAEL Lowe, Sr.

Larry Michael Lowe, Sr. was born of flesh on October 29, 1954, in Charenton, Louisiana and was swept into glory on August, 27, 2026 at his home in Franklin, Louisiana. Larry shares a life of 41 years with Greta Lowe. Together, they built a faith-filled family of four children: Larry Lowe, Jr. of Decatur, Georgia; Ezra Lowe and Tori Lowe, both of New Iberia, Louisiana; and Jondra Lowe of Franklin, Louisiana. He was also a proud grandfather of five grandchildren: Kamron Lowe, MaKenzie Lowe, Skylar Lowe, Jordyn Lowe and Jacey Lowe.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Allen Lowe, Sr. and Elizabeth Davis Lowe, his maternal grandmother, Laura Smith Jackson, three aunts, Annie Mae Green, Idell Davis Hall and Eliza Davis Brown, two uncles, Anthony Davis and AJ Davis, two brothers, Allen Lowe, Jr., Oliver Lowe, three sisters Sherry Charles, Verlyn Barto, and Shirley Milton and one brother-in-law Robert Grimm, and two nephews, Laine Washington, Sr. and Anthony Lowe, Sr. He will be missed and cherished by his wife, children, grandchildren his two sisters, Laura Washington (Leroy) and Francis Grimm (Robert), and a host of nephews and nieces.

Larry's keen sense of humor and gift of influence enabled him to guide loved ones to Jesus Christ during the peak years of his adulthood. He was admired by his wife and family for his ability to be steadfast in the decisions he made. During his time on Earth, he loved working in the yard, relaxing under a tree, fishing, and hunting rabbits with friends and family.

Larry's legacy of faith and leadership will continue to guide us.

A Tribute to Our Pawpaw

LL PAWPAW

Today, we stand here together as your grandchildren with hearts full of love, memories, and gratitude. Pawpaw, it is hard to put into words how much you meant to all of us. You were someone who was bold and steadfast when it came to your decisions. You stood firmly in what you believed in and were never afraid to be yourself. You also had a deep appreciation for nature and the simple beauty around you. Those qualities were a special part of who you were, and they are things we will always remember about you. Each of us has our own special memories of you. Whether it was something you said, a moment we shared, a laugh, or simply being around you, those memories are treasures that we will always hold close to our hearts. Although we wish we had more time with you, we are grateful for the time we were given. We will remember your love, your presence, and the ways you touched each of our lives. As your grandchildren, we want you to know that your legacy will live on through us. We will carry your memory with us as we grow, make memories of our own, and continue to love one another as a family. We love you, Pawpaw. We miss you, and although saying goodbye is one of the hardest things we have ever had to do, we will never truly say goodbye because you will always be a part of us.

Rest peacefully, Pawpaw. With all our love,
Your grandchildren, Kamron, MaKenzie,
Skylar, Jordyn, & Jacey
