Pattie Diane Sanders

Born Shelton Washington, November 18, 1960, after a short stint in the St. Dominic hospital, she went to heaven on July 18, 2022.

Pattie was preceded in death by her mother: Shirley Bogart of Elma, WA; father: Donald Dosch of Tacoma, WA; Steven Dosch of Los Angeles, CA and Raymond Dosch of Aberdeen, WA.

Pattie grew up on the north side of Tacoma, Washington. We thought it was fun growing up there. Seemed like we were moving to a new school every month. It was always an adventure.

Pattie later moved to North River, WA to be with her dad, brothers and sisters. She attended school there and graduated Class of 1979 from North River High School. After graduation, Pattie moved to Elma, WA to be close to her grandmother. She got a job at Oak Host Nursing Home and worked to become a Certified Nurse Assistant (CNA). As she worked, she continued with some college course to obtain ongoing continued education.

When Pattie's mom took sick, Pattie took her in and cared for her until her passing. Pattie made another move to Lakewood to be closer to her dad and brothers. She worked at that time at Lakewood, a few blocks from home. This is where she met Hilliard Sanders. After a time of steady dating, this is where the romance began. In 2012, Pattie and Hilliard moved to Mississippi to take care of Hilliard's mom.

Pattie was an angel. Anytime someone needed help, she was there. She was the best sister anyone ever had. She loved Mississippi so much, loved her in-laws as her very own. She always said if something ever happened, she would stay in Mississippi.

She is survived by her husband, Hilliard Sanders of Yazoo City, MS; one brother: Dellmar Dosch of Tacoma, WA; one sister: Tressa Beals of Aberdeen, WA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A Sister's Love

*Sisters are a blessing and a curse.
They love you, protect you, bug you and drive you crazy. Pattie, I would never change anything about you. After Mom was gone, it was you and I. We didn't talk every day, but I always knew you were there. I'll miss you laughing at me.
This hole won't be filled until I see you again. Love you with my entire being. God bless you Sis until we meet again.*

Love Tressa

What We Know

*We know you soar with angels now
And that your heart has wings.
We know you are watching over us
Whatever this world brings.
We know you were a gift from God
And that you're safe above.
We know that we will see you again
And once more feel your love.
We know you live in Heaven now
And that we must go on.
We know our hearts
will ache for you
Until our time is done.*
