Obituary

Patricia Ann Cade Hyman was born on December 22, 1956, in Florence, South Carolina, to the late Mr. Leroy Cade and Mrs. Rosa Cade. On September 30, 2026, she peacefully entered eternal rest, leaving behind a legacy of faith, love, service, and dedication that will continue to inspire all who knew her. Patricia was a devoted wife, loving mother, proud grandmother, cherished sister, dedicated educator, and treasured friend whose life reflected her unwavering commitment to God, family, and community.

Patricia believed deeply in the power of education and lifelong learning. She graduated from McClenaghan High School in 1974 and continued her educational journey at Florence-Darlington Technical College, Chris Logan Beauty School, and Francis Marion University. Her passion for learning led her to earn a Master of Education from Lesley University and a Master of Educational Leadership from Grand Canyon University. Her academic achievements reflected her perseverance, determination, and commitment to personal and professional growth.

Education was not merely a career for Patricia; it was her calling. She faithfully dedicated 30 years of service to Florence School District One Schools, where she worked tirelessly to support students, families, and fellow educators. Throughout her career, she inspired countless young people to believe in themselves and pursue their dreams. Her dedication, compassion, and leadership left an indelible mark on the lives of those she served and demonstrated her belief that education creates opportunities and transforms lives.

On July 13, 1985, Patricia married the love of her life, Wallace Hyman. Together they built a life founded on faith, love, and family. With love and joy, a family was united with a daughter, Tiffany Josey Davis, who was truly the pride of Patricia's life. The bond they shared was one of unconditional love, friendship, and unwavering support. Patricia cherished every moment spent with her daughter and celebrated her accomplishments with immense pride.

Patricia was also a loving and devoted grandmother to Tyra Davis and Jordan Davis, and a cherished honorary grandmother to Taijah Cade-Jenkins. Her grandchildren brought her tremendous joy and countless reasons to smile. She treasured every opportunity to spend time with them, encourage them, support them, and create lasting memories that will forever remain in their hearts. Family was Patricia's greatest blessing, and she devoted herself wholeheartedly to those she loved.

Patricia leaves to cherish her precious memory her devoted husband, Wallace Hyman; her beloved daughter, Tiffany Josey (Timothy) Davis; her cherished grandchildren, Tyra Davis and Jordan Davis; her honorary granddaughter, Taijah Cade-Jenkins; and her loving sisters, Evelina C. Reed of Florence, South Carolina, Mary R. Cade of Columbia, South Carolina, Rose (James) Thompson of Charlotte, North Carolina, and Joan (James) Heath of Charlotte, North Carolin. She also leaves behind her beloved nieces and nephews: Wanda, Tarrence, Sandra, Andrea, Xerxses, Marqua, and Kimyatta, along with a host of cousins, extended family members, former colleagues, former students, and dear friends who were blessed by her kindness, wisdom, and loving spirit.

She was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Mr. Leroy Cade and Mrs. Rosa Cade; her brother, Leroy Cade Jr.; and her beloved nephews, James Cade and Ceasar Cade. Though they departed before her, their memories remained forever treasured in her heart and continue to be an important part of her family's legacy.

While her earthly journey has ended, her love, wisdom, and influence will remain forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. We mourn her absence, yet we celebrate a life beautifully lived and a legacy that will continue for generations to come. We are grateful for the years we were blessed to share with her, for the love she gave so freely, for the wisdom she imparted, and for the countless memories that will forever be cherished.

May Patricia Ann Cade Hyman rest peacefully in the loving arms of the Lord.

Forever Loved.
Forever Remembered.
Forever Cherished.

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

A LEGACY OF LOVE

A LIFE WELL-LIVED

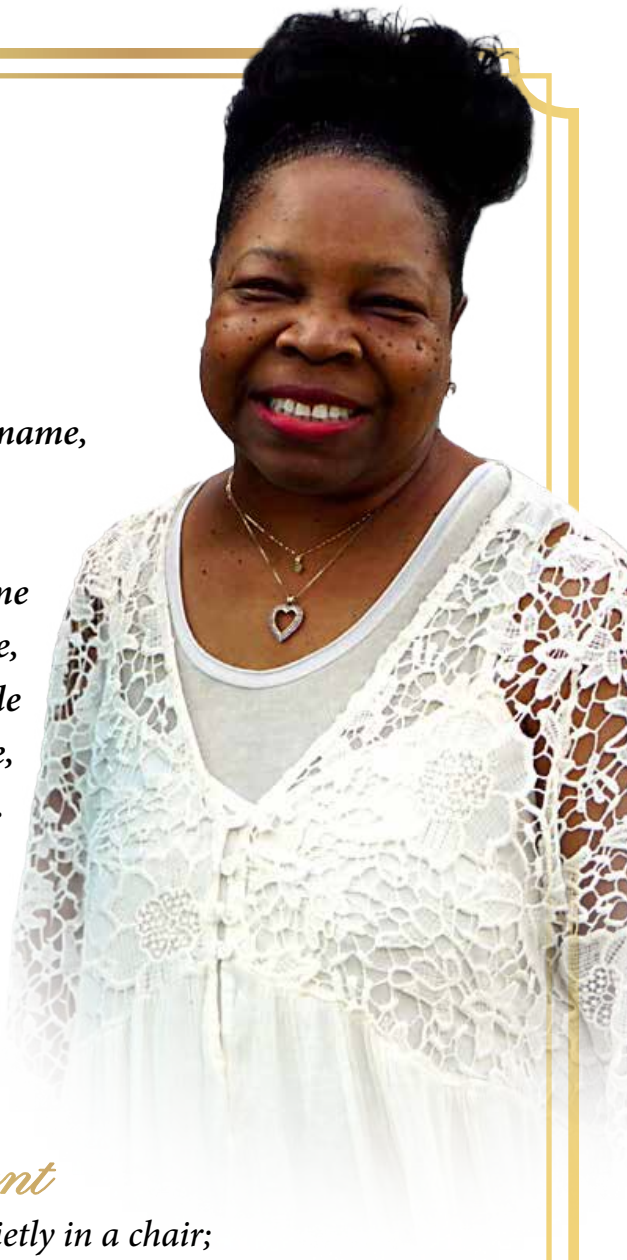

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly; in death we do the same
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same,
But as God call us one by one, the chain will link again.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part.
