

The Joy of Jean

I am at a place where I can visually see the hem of his garment and walk boldly amongst the lambs. Aligning myself with the angels and ancestors, at where one may consider, to be a distant land. I am at home, in the glorious pastures of heaven, with a multitude of roses that are red purple yellow and green. I can hear the trumpets commence and drums echo with glee. The grey in my hair continues to glisten. The sparkle in my eyes constantly dance. This is by far greater than I've ever imagined and or seen in my dreams. And the voice of my Heavenly Father, speaks to me!

He says: Well done, you triumphant servant, the sweet, docile child of mine. I blessed your family and friends with ninety years of your time. Now dress yourself up in gold, adjust your luminous crown and take my hand. I'll let them all know that you're safe in my arms, the God whom created woman and man. And in this new horizon, my dear Jean, you take your stand!

Celebrating the Beautiful Life of

Jean Hughes

Sunrise: January 3, 1936 - Sunset: March 2, 2026

Jean Hughes was born on January 3, 1936 in Newport, Ky to her parents, the late Bessie Hall-Walker and Hemp Spears. At an early age, she moved to Covington, Ky, where she was raised under the love and care of her mother and step father Perry Walker. In Covington, Jean also attended Lincoln Grant school for her education and was baptized at Ninth Street Baptist Church, under the late, Reverend Lacey.

Since a child, Jean was always surrounded by a large family. At family gatherings and events, an outpouring of love was always expressed to everyone. She adored her brother Moses and their numerous cousins, for they all grew up together and were raised as siblings. A true connection that transpired and stayed throughout the years.

Many individuals felt the strong family values that Jean exuded. Rather, if you were a family member or friend, your love for her and the love that she had for you was reflected unmeasurably. So many young adults and children, within the community called her Grandma or gave her the utmost respect by calling her Ms. Jean.

When "Sleeping Beauty" wasn't sleep or on the telephone with her family or friends, during her spare time, Jean loved to watch In the Heat of the Night, Matlock, Little House on the Prairie and countless other television series. She was a huge fan of Cowboy films and greatly adored Michael Jackson. It's been said, that no one repeatedly played the Thriller album more than her. Bingo, crossword puzzles, card games were a few of her favorite hobbies. And a good gesture to put an even bigger smile on her face was to buy her a stanback and a Pepsi or Sprite. Jean also enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. They were her world and kept her young, with all the laughs and shared fond memories.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Calvin Hughes Sr, her brother Oscar "Moses" her four sisters; Irene, Jane, Pat and Betty Sue and her grandsons, Shawn Hughes, Eric Hughes, & Malaysia Amos Aliza Jones.

Those left to cherish her memories, are her daughter's: Ernestine Hughes, Jeannie Humphrey(Darryl) and Linda Hughes. Her son, Charles Hughes. Step son, Calvin Hughes Jr., Grandchildren: Anthony(raised as a son), Reginald, Richard, Terrell, Bessea, Ruka, Coolidge, Lil' Anthony, Saquesha, and Patrick. Thirty great grandchildren and five great-great grandchildren. Special long-time friend Ora Lee Jackson and first cousins Joyce Dates and Jenny Moss. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, bonus grandchildren and friends.

Jean was truly loved and cherished by all that knew her. She will be truly missed and will forever, reside in all of our hearts!

Forever In Our Hearts

2 Timothy 4:7-8

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."
