

Celebrating the Life of Jacqueline Ross

Evangelist Jacqueline Wallace Ross nee McCoy was born to the late James Jr. and Jessie McCoy on March 16, 1952, in Cincinnati, OH. As a child, she, her father, and her bonus mother, Alberta McCoy, relocated to Chicago, IL, where she attended Parker Elementary and Englewood High School.

Jackie surrendered to Christ at a young age and knew she was called to the Kingdom. She returned to Cincinnati. She was blessed with five children in the beauty of holiness: William, Kiki (who preceded Jackie in death), Daniel, Michael, and Krystal. In 1984, Jackie was joined in holy matrimony to Glenn Ross and was blessed with two additional children: Andre Brazil and Tawny Ross. Glenn and Jackie enjoyed many loving years together and were approaching their fortieth anniversary!

Jackie's ability to be empathic and gracious while speaking the truth in love was a rare gift from God. Jackie utilized these amazing interpersonal skills to excel in her career in the medical industry and later in the field of education as a teacher. Additionally, she hosted her very own talk-variety show, Minister Jackie Ross on WTSJ, and received widespread accolades. Her ingenuity enabled her to mesh her biblical and practical experience to minister, inform, and entertain the masses.

As Jackie fully embraced the calling on her life, she decided to attend a school of divinity to deepen her understanding of the Gospel of Christ. Jackie not only finished her program, but her immeasurable love for God and His people led to her pursuit of additional ministerial certificates. She was a sought-after speaker for conferences and revivals throughout the Cincinnati area and served as a conduit for the Lord, leading countless souls to the kingdom. Jackie avidly believed that the church should extend well beyond the four walls so she founded many notable community events, including: Church in the Hood, Youth on the Move for Christ, and The Virtuous Woman.

She also worked diligently to both support and assist in planting a number of other ministries while always shining brightly as a beacon of grace, love, hope, and peace for all who crossed her path.

Jackie slept away peacefully into her eternal rest and received her crown of righteousness on September 29, 2024. Well done, good and faithful servant. Enter into the joy of the Lord!

Jackie was preceded in death by her daughter, Kiki; her parents, James Jr. and Jessie McCoy and Alberta McCoy; and her siblings, Jerome, James, Michael.

Jackie leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Glenn; children: William (Lisa), Daniel (Sonya), Michael, Krystal, Andre, and Tawny; Sister: JoAnn; Sister-in-law: Barbara and Patricia; Brother-in-law: William and seventeen grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.

Cherish the Memories

“But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep,
lest you sorrow as others who have no hope.
For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, ven so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus.”

1 Thessalonians 4:13 - 14

Jackie's Faith Foundations

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.
He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths
of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.
Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord Forever.

~Psalms 23

Love suffers long and is kind;
love does not envy; love does not parade itself,
is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth;
bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails...

~1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Her children rise up and call her blessed;
Her husband also, and he praises her:
Many daughters have done well,
But you excel them all.

~Proverbs 31:28-29

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

During a time like this, we realize how much our family and friends mean to us. Your kind expression of love will always be remembered

“The LORD bless you and keep you; The LORD make His face shine upon you, And be gracious to you; The LORD lift up His countenance upon you, And give you peace.”
