

MY LAST REQUESTS

Don't cry for me, please try not to shed any tears,
You may not find me in the physical but trust me I'll always be right here.
Please don't worry about me for I'm excited about what's in store,
You may have needed me here with you, but God needed me more.
I did everything I set out to do and overcame every test,
I have fought through everything I could, now my soul needs to rest.
The trials and tribulations were all a part of my destiny,
I dealt with them as they came without letting them get the best of me.
I want you to know that you're loved and that you'll always be.
Dry your eyes and please don't cry,
Rejoice and let me go because now I am finally free.

I Love You All, Kathy

Kathy Yvette Agostini

Kathy Yvette Agostini, 56, daughter of the late Nelson and Goldie Rodriguez-Agostini, was born on May 27, 1962 in Orangeburg, New York. She departed this life at her home in Asbury Park on February 14, 2019.

She received her education from the Asbury Park School District. She worked for many years until their closing for the Sam Wah Laundromat, formerly of Asbury Park.

Kathy served as a lifelong member of Christ Temple C. L. G. (Neptune, NJ) where she served as a choir member under the leadership of Bishop Cleveland L. Harvey, more presently under Pastor Jerome Hubbard, Kathy was beautiful woman whose strength and resilience was incomparable. She was known for her infectious laughter, wonderful sense of fashion, beautiful smile and brilliant blue eyes. She was always a generous soul willing to open her doors and heart for anyone who needed her. She will be greatly missed by all who were blessed to be in her presence.

She was predeceased by her natural mother, Rose Johnson, adopted parents, Goldie and Nelson Agostini, and her two sons, Rahju, T. Love and Ryekill R. Agostini.

She leaves to mourn: two loving children, her eldest son, Terrale T. Agostini and her youngest son, Rakim L. Love (both of Asbury Park), her grandchildren, Ahdaizjah Bellamy, Marcellus Booze, Jaking Agostini, Jahya Agostini, Jamir Styles and terquaey Agostini (all of New Jersey), her two great grandchildren, AZiya Bellamy and Ah'zhir Seeah Johnson. Her sister Vivian Brown, her brother, Robert Johnson, Stepsisper Florence Johnson, her niece, Shamonique Brown, her nephew, Tywand Johnson, and her cousin/best friend, Vickie Johnson. She also leaves to cherish her loving and faithful companion Elzia Tutt, as well as, her mother through marriage, Emma Agostini and stepsiblings, Edward Benson, Anita I. Benson, Robert Brown Jr. and Robin McGaskey, as well as a host of other loving family and friends.
